PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The '92 Rodeo Season is now complete, and I'd like to thank everyone who had a part in making the Finals the success that it was.

Congratulations go to all our AGRA Contestants and winners, both in and out of the Arena, where Greg Olson kept up his string of All-Around Cowboy wins, and Teri Rowe earned the 2nd Runner-Up title for Ms IGRA.

Especially important at these Rodeo weekends are the often unsung Volunteers. Those men and women who work all weekend long, for very little recognition. A couple of those volunteers, who's voices I heard all weekend long, were our Announcers, Wayne Jakino and Treva London. Thank-you both for coming down from Denver and helping us out.

On a more personal level, there are two women who aren't even AGRA Members, but never missed a chance to keep urging me on all weekend with compliments and encouragement. Thanks to Sharon and Maureen, I really appreciated your support.

Now, on to our January Rodeo!

Dan Iversen

PAST DUE

Heavens, we miss one month of the Newsletter (busy with the Finals ya know) and it seems like EVERYTHING has changed and/or passed us by.

Passing us by while we were still cleaning up the Rodeo was that little skinny-dipping at the Days Inn Monday night party attended by DAN IVERSEN, CARL PETERSON, & DAVID PICKLE, among others. Surprised Carl and David even had time for this one, being as they were supposedly oh-so-busy all weekend doing another one of LEWIS SANDER's Ex's.

Preparing for Finals, we somehow missed the TONY OWENS/whipped cream story. Someone give us a call.

Changes include BILL TRAVIS in as Public Relations, relieving BILL BESANCON, who gives up his interim position, with pleasure.

Our Tucson Satellite is right in the middle of next year's Board Elections, and nominations for the AGRA Board have just begun. All these upcoming Board changes have apparently put any proposed by-laws changes on hold for now.

Rodeo results for the Atlantic Stampede have either gotten misplaced in the piles, or we never got them. RON TRUSLEY is dillegently checking into that, and we hope to have those results next month.

And what the hell is going on with these changed Contestant's packets for the '93 Season?! You need a Degree to figure them out. Or, you can call LARRY JONES at #257-8231 to help you thru them.

Royalty Contestant's fund-raising efforts for our local charities continues unabated as well. Bill Travis pulled in over $900 at a FOSTER's sponsored Slave Auction, including a nice chunk that bought MARK McCRORY to have him clean a house, wearing a French Maid outfit. CANDY BELL's "Dykes in Dresses" over at CASH INN COUNTRY was apparently just a scream. Cheers of delight greeting Candy in a Bridal Gown, and literal screams of terror, from the boys, when CAROL SHEARER flashed them in her gown, sans underwear. TERRY FILLOON dragged in hundreds at a recent COYOTE CLUB benefit, and will be returning there before Xmas to show off her fundraising skills again. First up though, is an All Royalty Benefit Show, scheduled for WINK's Dec. 13th. Be there.

TUCSON BOARD / AGRA BANQUET ELECTIONS NEAR

Our Tucson Satellite is right in the middle of their yearly Board nominations and elections. The elections are scheduled for December 18th.

Nominated to date for President are MIKE MAHYNSKE and BILL DARNELL, Vice-President: PETER SITTIG and GEORGE KAMINSKI, Treasurer: GIL LEON and GEOFFREY WILLCOX, Recording Secretary: CRAIG CODER, and RANDY BILBRO, Corresponding Secretary: CRAIG CODER and MARK MILLER, Dance & Entertainment: FRANK GALLEGO and LARRY MANN, Mobility & Logistics: TELVI ROYBAL, JIM FISHER, and JOHN KLEIN, Public Relations: RICK SLOAN and PETER SITTIG, Fundraising: SEAN THOMAS, GEOFFREY WILCOX, and BILL DARNELL, Rodeo Events: TELVI ROYBAL KELLY O'NEIL, and JOHN KLEIN.

Also coming up is the AGRA Elections Banquet. No nominations information at this writing, but we got the place and times for ya. As usual, the banquet will take place after January's Rodeo, this year it will be Saturday night, January 30th, and is once again being held at the Quality Hotel (our Rodeo Host Hotel). Voting will start at 6:00PM, which is also when the no-host bar will open for cocktails. Dinner will be at 7:30, with the Program and Elections results beginning at 8:30. All current Members are invited to attend this banquet, free of charge, with non-Member guests also invited at $15.00 per person.

The Quality Hotel is also offering special room rates, as they did last year, for our Members coming from out of town, and for those of us planning on partying 'til we drop. $49 a night room rates can be had by calling the Quality at #248-0222, and requesting that AGRA room rate.

Start making those banquet reservations by contacting Membership's MAX SUTHERLAND at our next General Membership meeting, or by calling for him at #265-0224.

WICHITA RODEO RESULTS

Ancient history now, but we still want to mention the ongoing buckle collecting being done by AGRA Members. This batch of buckles was collected at Great Plains Regional Rodeo's Wichita Kansas Event, held way back at the end of July and first couple days in August. Don't remember any gossip from this Rodeo, and not many AGRA-ers even attended this one (think everyone had to stay home and wash their hair that weekend) so it was left to ANDY ANAYA and DENNIS TERRELL to do it for us, and of course they did.

Dennis picked up another All-Around Cowboy Buckle that weekend, as well as Event Buckles in Calf Roping on Foot, Break-Away Roping, and Team Roping. Andy shared the Team Roping honors, and ended up as 1st Runner-Up to the All-Around Buckle.

In the Daily Standings (Saturday) Dennis placed 9th in the Barrel Race, 5th in Break-Away Roping, 1st in Calf Roping on Foot, 4th in Chute Dogging, 5th in Goat Dressing, 12th in Pole Bending, 1st in Steer Decorating, a tie for 4th in Steer Riding, 1st in Team Roping, and 1st in the Wild Drag Race. Andy's Saturday placings included 6th in Barrel Racing, 3rd in Break-Away Roping, 5th in Goat Dressing, 2nd in Pole Bending, 1st in Steer Decorating, 1st in Team Roping, and 1st in the Wild Drag Race.

Sunday's placings for Dennis were 7th in the Barrel Race, 4th in Break-Away Roping, 4th in Calf Roping on Foot, 10th in Chute Dogging, 3rd in the Flag Race, 3rd in Goat Dressing (twice in two runs), 12th in Pole Bending, 2nd in Steer Riding, and 1st and 4th in two runs at Team Roping. Andy's Sunday placings were 4th in Barrel Racing, 1st in Calf Roping on Foot, two 3rds in Goat Dressing, 5th in Pole Bending, and the same 1st and 4th in Team Roping as Dennis did.

Congratulations guys for keeping AGRA at the top of the heap!

RODEO RESULTS

More of us AGRA Members showed up for New Mexico's Zia Regional Rodeo, and more of you were talked about. We even got a conference call from a few people who were cocktailing in a bar and wanted to fill us in on the latest. Where, and what bar they were at, we're not sure that they even knew. Also heard from MARK McCrory saying not to believe anything that BILL TRAVIS said about him, and not to believe that Bill was so innocent, just because people may not have "caught" him at anything that weekend. It's nice to see our "Mr" Royalty Candidates getting along so well.

What we heard... WOODY KIEHN stole Mark McCrory's pillow Sat. night so he could do a trick on the floor of the room. Surprised that Woody had time for "dating" what with all the time/energy expended in teepeeing TERRY BARTLETT's truck and draping streams of toilet paper from the 5th floor of the Host Hotel's indoor atrium.

GREG OLSON apparently wasn't playing with toilet paper, so had plenty of "dating" time for that cute little Hispanic boy he was hanging with.

BILL DARNELL and RON TRUSLEY also had plenty of time, but no dates, so they spent their time in the RANCH's Leather Bar, watching pornos.

Mark McCrory was overheard complaining about being "sore", could it have been anything to do with that Colorado Springs boy? Other complaints were overheard about the constant "thumping on the wall" emanating from JOHN KING and ERIC SMITH's room.

MICHAEL ROYER apparently didn't get his fill over the weekend. He was spotted cruising the airport on the way home, looking for Finals dates.

And in the Arena...

Our ANDY ANAYA took his first All-Around Cowboy Buckle. We use the word "took" on purpose since he swiped our cigarettes and lighter the other night at CHARLIE'S, so we're not sure whether he earned this All-Around, or just walked by the Awards table and took the Buckle Giving Andy the benefit of the doubt we'll congratulate him on being the latest AGRAer to come out on top of the list on the Rodeo Circuit. Rounding out the top five places for All-Around Boy were DENNIS TERRELL as 1st Runner-Up, GREG OLSON as 2nd Runner-Up, and LARRY JONES as 5th Runner-Up. We also took three places in the All-Around Cowgirl honors with CANDY BELL coming in as 3rd Runner-Up, DONNA AUER as 4th Runner-Up, and CAROL SHEARER as 5th Runner-Up.

Buckles earned by our people included the Barrel Race by KRIS EISENHUT, Break-Away Roping by Larry Jones, Bull Riding by Candy Bell, Pole Bending by Greg Olson, Steer Riding by Donna Auer, Team Roping by Andy Anaya and Dennis Terrell, and the Wild Drag Race by DAN IVERSEN, Greg Olson, and BECKY WATTS.

SAN DIEGO

RODEO RESULTS

ANDY on top of SADDLE

CANDY the best SPORT

ANDY ANAYA took his second Buckle in a row, and won a saddle as well for earning the San Diego Rodeo's All-Around Cowboy honors. And CANDY BELL became the second AGRA woman this year to earn a Sportsmanship Award showing that our AGRA women know the true meaning of "sports competition".

1st Runner-Up for All-Around was DENNIS TERRELL, and 3rd Runner-Up was GREG OLSON. Also in the Arena was our Seattle Member DAVID PRESNELL, anybody get an updated address from him?

Proving to us once again that a "one person, one room" policy of booking Hotel rooms is definately the way to go at these Rodeos, were the events occuring in one of the multi-booked rooms of ours. Greg and LARRY JONES were all bedded down one evening, with the door ajar so the rest of the gang could come in, when a complete stranger walked in and bedded down with them. Thinking he must be an invited "guest" of one of the others, Greg and Larry ignored him. When Andy, Dennis, and DAN IVERSEN arrived back at the room, they figured the stranger belonged to either Greg or Larry, so they too ignored him. The next morning, even the stranger had no idea why he was in that particular room.

Another uninvited guest, in CAROL SHEARER's room, was a mouse. What Chute-Dogging Carol's problem was with a little mouse we don't know, but it kept her awake all night. And she got $5 off her bill... REAL little mouse.

Bringing home Buckles from San Diego were... Andy Anaya for Calf Roping on Foot and Pole Bending. Dennis Terrell brought home Break-Away Roping, and Chute Dogging, and Dennis and Andy teamed up to win Buckles in Goat Dressing and Team Roping. Carol Shearer took Chute Dogging, KEN DAVIS did the Wild Drag, Candy Bell took the Steer Riding, and Greg Olson and Dan Iversen once again took the Steer Decorating honors. And congrats to KEENAN ALLEN who won his first Buckle ever, in the Flag Race. Saturday's placings were...

FINALS RODEO

RESULTS

Good stuff going on in the Arena at this year's Finals Rodeo hosted by AGRA. GREG OLSON finally came completely back to the top with his All-Around Cowboy Buckle, and AGRA took the top three Cowboy positions with ANDY ANAYA as 1st Runner-Up, and DENNIS TERRELL as 2nd Runner-Up. TGRA's CANDY PRATT took the All-Around Cowgirl honors, but we were represented well there too with CANDY BELL as 2nd Runner-Up, and ANGIE DARNELL as 3rd Runner-Up.

In the Buckles, besides the All-Around, Greg also took three others for Pole Bending, Steer Riding, and shared the Goat Dressing award with DAN IVERSEN. Andy won two, for Break-Away Roping and Calf Roping on Foot, and Candy also won two in Steer Riding and Bull Riding. BECKY WATTS earned the woman's Calf Roping on Foot Buckle.

Of course not everything was happening in the Arena.

Onstage for the IGRA Royalty Contest, our TERI ROWE took 2nd Runner-Up to the Ms Title, and looked GREAT doing it. Did you notice the roar of approval from the crowd when she walked out for Western Wear in that black and silver lace number? KRIS EISENHUT, equally adorable in his Western Wear, ended up 4th Runner-Up, so of course we now support the idea of awarding the top Five placers in this contest. JACQULEENE DE SAVOI wasn't lucky enough to place up at the top, but still put on a sterling show all weekend. Should have caught her "We Are Family" performance Sunday afternoon that had the crowd up dancing on the stage with her.

Overall, we think we had a very successful Rodeo, though the rain on Saturday cut into our expected crowds, and last minute problems with the outside tents and concrete slab from Hell probably killed any profit we had hoped to see. MICHAEL ROYER is still busy cooking those books in an attempt to at least make us break even.

Speaking of trying to raise money, did you notice that wonderful wall of lights that WAYNE RAFFERTY put together for the stage?

We were actually getting bids on it from different people over the weekend who wanted to buy it. Unfortunately, it was built on site and couldn't be saved, but fundraisers that we all are, we sold it twice anyway.

We had unwanted Media attention for the first time this Rodeo too. Both the Republic and Gazette let it be known that they were going to do stories whether we helped or not. And just when we thought we had them talked out of it, the TWO animal rights activists who live in town decided to call them up and give them another angle to cover. The result was a story in each paper, both very positive, and both AFTER the weekend, with no mention of where or when another one might occur in the future. KDKB then jumped on the band-wagon and did one of their morning show skits on us, all the usual stereotyped oneliners, but ended the piece with some also positive words about being proud of the people of Phoenix for being open enough to allow and support all types of people. All very nice, and we still would have rather done without.

A number of people decided to cut their Rodeo week stress levels by starting out the week with tricks. Ask RON ERICKSON about picking up stray transients on their way to Bus Stops. Ditto for DAVID JOHNSTON (Bubble Butt Bonita to his friends) who was crazed all weekend, despite that Thursday night trick of his. 'Course part of David's nerves could have been caused by Asst. Bar Manager TIM WHICKER, whose name we misspelled in the Program. Well excuse us, but look at that spelling, would you have a clue it was spelled that way when it's pronounced "Wicker"? His friends are now calling him Miss Furniture, and we think they both need new friends.

A little birdy told us that SCOTT TICKLER's VICTORIA LONDON once again had NO tricks over the weekend (she just keeps attracting Lesbians and curious straight delivery boys). When asked for her comments on this sad state of affairs, Victoria screamed that she was gonna "beat our little Black birdy Caucasian!" We fled.

And finally the touching story of SEAN YOUNG and DOUG "ERNERST" WAGNER's 13th Anniversary torture session that went on all weekend. Seems Doug sent Sean roses at his workplace earlier in the week, just to embarrass him. Sean therefore returned the favor by presenting Doug with a dozen roses on Saturday in front of 2,000 people in the Arena while Doug was trying to be a Judge. Deciding to do it again, Sean arranged to have the same roses delivered again at a restaurant on Monday night, by a waiter asking if there was a "Mrs Sean Simple Young" at the table of 11 men. Not wanting Sean to have all the fun, MICHAEL COONEY and LARRY BRUMLEY (he's past IGRA Mr Royalty, but past is past so who cares?) set-up the same waiter to return with a package for Sean that included roses, lube, and a home pregnancy test. Proving once again that you may be able to dress Doug up, but that he's still too simple to take out, when a candle-lit cake was presented to the happy couple at the end of the evening, Doug screamed to Sean "Oh Honey, blow it like you do me!"

Before we head back to the Arena for the daily placings, we'd like to take time out to thank our new very bestest friend Sean, for that fabulous hostess gift he presented to us Sunday evening. Rest assured we'll be returning the favor with a future trip up to see you, with Michael Royer in tow.

Those who can recall the past (farther back than last week) may remember last year's Wichita Finals Rodeo, and one particular IGRA Royalty Miss Contestant by the name of CRYSTAL DEVILLE from MGRA. The outrageous Crystal (along with her sainted Mother) is back! Having picked up the new Miss MGRA title from outgoing ALYSSA LEE, Crystal will be vying for next year's Miss IGRA. Look out Fort Worth!

"Well Hello Hollie" (sung to the refrain of LOUIS ARMSTRONG'S "Hello Dolly") was an ongoing tune heard thru-out Finals weekend as DAVID ANAYA'S HOLLIE WOODS came back to town, to stay. David, Drex, and Hollie's gowns are busy settling in in Scottsdale so don't expect to see too much of Hollie for the time being, but she assures us that she'll be in our future, helping out AGRA any way she can.

And former IGRA Misses? How 'bout an update on MOOSELA? Friday night of Finals she was cocktailting at COUNTRY CLUB BAR & GRILL when the WESTERN EXPRESS' DON PINTACURA started force feeding her shots of Cuervo. The story gets a little fuzzy here, so we're not sure if it was the fifth, or sixth, shot that caused Moose to fall backwards off her barstool landing on the floor with her head and crown stuck in the drywall of a half-wall behind her. AGRA Historians are now trying to convince Country Club's RHONDA WALDEN to repair the wall AROUND the 18" hole, leaving a permanent memorial to one of our former Royalty Members.

PHONE MESSAGES

Perhaps it's the fact/fear that next year's Corresponding Secretary may take this newsletter in a different direction that has our once "dried-up" sources (that's NOT a reference to TOMMY READ) suddenly ringing up the home phone machine again. Maybe you're figuring that there's just a little time left to rat on that buddy of yours? Whatever the reasoning, we're thrilled to have our phone ringing off the hook. Here's some one liners lifted right off the machine...

Who's that little boy from Tucumcari that DREW WASHINGTON's JACQULEENE DE SAVOI managed to finally get her three-inch nails into during a recent Tucson trip? Sounds like a scene from Aliens III, but we want the details anyway.

Who would have ever thought that JEFF "Aunt Pitty Pat" COON would turn out to be such a Sun Devils Booster? Or is it just one particular studly team member that Jeff's got "caught in his throat" so to speak?

GSGRA's RAY HARTSHORN encourages everyone to ask DOUG WAGNER about the phrase "Ladies served first", and why it is that Doug always seems to get served first whenever a group of us are dining out.

BSGRA's CODY CRUM ripped into us for our mention of him in the last issue. Not for the subject matter, but for misspelling his name! To make amends, we spell it correctly here, and refer you to the IGRA by-laws for his address and phone number. Cody wants, and needs, a date. While you're in the same section, someone forward us the number for Big Sky's ROGER LAUGHERY, nice IGRA Royalty judge that we tried suckering into our room for "additional balloting". He didn't bite on that one, perhaps we could fake him into a "recount"?

JACK ADDINGTON, who's done nearly every boy's name in the book, appears to be somewhat settling down... with another "Jack". Is this because Jack Part II is truly adorable (our vote), or is it just an easy name to remember for Jack?

Who is the Resource's "GIRL" and why did we never run into her in class at the elite Hedda Hoppe School for Gifted Girls that she claims to have attended?

Speaking of dead gossip queens, RON "Louella O. Parsons o. Hollywood" ERICKSON is sporting a festive little 9-stitch "tatoo" o. one ear. Or is that just God's revenge for Ron's nerve in walking into a church? We heard that a speaker literally jumped off the wall and landed on his head.

To print, or not to print? We're sitting here drooling over these fabulous pictures of two men having sex in a room at August's IGRA Convention in St. Paul, MN. Actually, it's one AGRA "man" wearing a motorcycle helmet, and one local Minneapolis "boy-stud" who owns the helmet. We just can't bring ourselves to print these, refer to the last Branding Iron for identities.

The light's blinking on the message machine again, time to go pick-up news for next month!

DAVII ANAYA goes to Scottsdale, we hear that JACQULEENE was camping out at NATALIE RAE's place, and thank God that SCOTT DARNELL has things sent to his Mom's in Scottsdale, 'cause we're never quite sure just where the hell he's at.
