T.G.R.A. HOUSTON RODEO RECAP

The DSRA showed up in Houston in full force, in full dress and in full fun mode. About 70 of our members traveled by all means of transportation to the rodeo ready to have a great time, and none were disappointed.

Several of our members braved the wild livestock and entered some of the events. Chute dogging saw Charles J., Gary S., John C., and Ken M. performing with great skill and strength. Steer decorating found Charles J. and Mary R. trimming that tail with the finesse of tried and true practice. The event of Wild Drag Racing pitted Gary S., David I., Shan B., and Charles J., Ken M., and Mary R. against formidable foes with horns. Gary, David and Shan placed 13th. (Pygmy) Goat Dressing was the event where DSRA members Steve M. and Gary S. shone in their finest hour by placing 5th and winning 5 points and a beautiful yellow ribbon.

The cocktail party at the BRB was a huge success. You couldn't have stirred those cowboys and cowgirls with a stick. Many new friends were made. The cowgirls left that party and went to the Ranch where over 1000 women were gathered for a heck of a party. Around 30 women from Arkansas enjoyed this party.

The bus trip did materialize and one PWA joined the group for a long ride to Houston. Over one half of the bus riders were having such a wonderful time that they didn't want to go home, so they found other means of transportation back to Arkansas.

Next year, the TGRA will have Dallas as their host city. Plan ahead and set your sights on this rodeo. You undoubtedly will have a great time. And, you too could come home with a real rodeo injury like Mary R., that you could use for all kinds of sympathy and favors.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

It was with regret that I read the letter of resignation of the Lariat editor, Mary R. Mary has done such an outstanding job as editor, she will be missed. I only hope that her talents will be offered in some other area of the DSRA. Thank you Mary for a job well done! The Lariat editorial committee under the guidance of the Vice-President, Gary S., will appoint a new editor. Please give your support to this hard working group of DSRA members whenever possible.

It is most important that you read the Lariat! Now that the new Bylaws are in effect, we do not meet again in a General Membership Session until January. Check out the Calendar and note the important dates: Texarkana trip (Dec. 1-2); and DSRA New Year's party (Dec. 31) are but two to keep in mind.

On behalf of the DSRA Board of Directors I wish you the happiest of holidays. May health and love be yours throughout the New Year.

MONEY, MONEY, MONEY!!!

Yes, it takes a lot of money to put on a rodeo and have a profit left over for charity. The Fund Raising committee is working hard to raise that money. Please come join us in planning future events, 7:30 PM on December 4 at Mitchell's. Call 372-5020 for directions.
