PRESIDENT SSSSAAAAYYYYSSSS

I truly am looking forward to 2004. It's going to be our 16th Rodeo and it will be so sweet. I envision the San Diego Rodeo becoming a year round organization. Through events and activities, fundraisers and education, I would like to see us in the community promoting rodeo and making a difference in the community.

We have many new activities planned for the coming year. We are planning group outings to rodeos, educational seminars for rodeo, dance and royalty events, weekend getaways, fundraisers, club crawls, group dinners, movie nights, and more. I look forward to hearing all your ideas. Some of these events may be different from our normal routine, but I hope you give them a chance. Lets make this a great year for all of us.

President Kenny

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S ERRAND BOY

Howdy all! It is a brand new year with lots of possibilities for the San Diego Chapter. But first off, I can not believe that we are already in 2004. I still do not know what happened with all of the time from the closing of Rodeo 2003 to now. It just disappeared, or more than likely, it got packed up in my move and I still have not got around to unpacking it. But alas, 2004 is here.

I know that you all had a fabulous Holiday season. I hope that everyone got to spend it with someone special and you got everything that was on your wish list. But I need to ask you all to put aside your worries about the New Year's Resolutions that you may be having a hard time keeping and think Rodeo. Yes I said it, Rodeo.

We are just around the corner for the first rodeo of the 2004 IGRA circuit. Can you guess which one?? Yep it is the PHOENIX Rodeo, also known more officially as the Road Runner Regional Rodeo (RRRR). (Hint for all those who are thinking about running for either local or State Royalty, remember the official names not the nick names.) The RRRR will be starting unofficially on Thursday Jan 15th with some rodeo classes hosted by both AGRA and IGRA, check their website for detailed information and registering. With the Rodeo weekend ending on the evening of Jan 18th.

Focusing more on the local level, the board has been busy with getting a lot of details and projects started early. So come by to General Membership and Roundtable Meetings to get all of the up to the minute details and information.

I would like to add one special event to your January calendar. The last Friday of the month is January 30th and we are going to be having the finals for the Best $$$ in Denim Contest at Kickers. I know that there is going to be a lot of fine cowboy butts in some tight jeans there that night. I know it will help keep us all warm on a January night. So head on out to Kickers for the finals of the Best $$$ in Denim contest.

SPAGHETTI DINNER FUNDRAISER

Our first Fundraiser for 2004 will be a Spaghetti Dinner on January 14 from 7 - 9 PM.

Charles B will be putting together all the fixins.

The dinner will be held at the North Park Community Center at 4649 Hawley St.
San Diego, CA 92116.

The cost will be $10.00 per plate.

See any Board member or Charles to purchase you ticket.

If you would like any further information or would like to volunteer, please contact Charles at 619 280-9732.

SD ROYALTY REPORT

A great big thank you to all of those who donated to Mama's Kitchen in our recent food drive - they greatly appreciate all the help they can get!! Did you know they now serve over 400,000 meals per year? This includes three meals a day to not only people with AIDS, but their dependent children as well.

But it should not only be at holidays that we remember the good work that Mama's Kitchen does - and as such, your royalty team will be sponsoring a monthly food drive to help them out. More information will be forthcoming at the next general membership meeting.

On a lighter note, we hope this season finds everyone safe and healthy - and mark your calendars for Wednesday, January 14th for a spaghetti diner!! Time and location to be announced, but aside from fabulous food, you'll be helping our San Diego Rodeo Association, so bring an appetite!

Happiest of Holidays to all wherever they might be taking you -

MAMA'S KITCHEN FOOD DRIVE

During the month of December, the members and friends of the Greater San Diego Chapter of GSGRA participated in a Food Drive for Mama's Kitchen.

They brought in nonperishable food items to fill the grocery bags for those afflicted with HIV/AIDS. The rodeo members were very happy to make this contribution to help others in our community.

Mama's Kitchen prepares and delivers three meals a day for every day of the year to men, women, and children affected by AIDS. They are the only meal

PHOENIX RODEO

Phoenix Rodeo is just around the corner, Jan 15-18!

A weekend full of fun and excitement is anticipated!

The board is trying to get as many members as possible to head out to Phoenix for one of the largest and First IGRA rodeos of the new year.

If you are interested in going and looking for some info on Air Fares, Hotel, transportation while there, and more importantly, a roomie for the weekend, please contact Kelly Gilliland at 619-697-5609 or vpadmin@sandiegorodeo.com or directly at kggill@cox.net for more information and getting on the list of who is going.

A MEMBER'S POEM

I WANT TO BE A COWBOY, NO, MAYBE A BULL

Here's this young cute cowboy if ever I saw one;
This wrangler rides up on his beautiful brindle to the bull I just helped load into the chute.

I was amazed as he quietly reached through the gate bars;
The bull settled as he scratched it behind its ear, petted, and talked to this beast.

I felt that to him this monster was more like a pet;
This bull was an important part of his life and he of its.

Here I am near a cowboy and I am doing cowboy things;
So then am I a cowboy now?
His presence eased my eager edge.

Then I remembered;
To be with them was another reason why I am here.

Paul M., Rodeo 2003 Chute Crew Member. GSGRA - San Diego Chapter

From the Desk of Our Fearless Leader.....

Howdy and Happy Holidays. Where does the time go? I can't believe how fast this year has flown by. A new year, a new rodeo year, and another year of three great GSGRA rodeos under our belts. For me, this has been a really great year. We're doing so much in GSGRA, and there's so much in store for next year. The board meeting in November was filled with lots of good discussion and information, and we've got several key projects underway. One of the biggest things we're looking into is the possibility of GSGRA producing a rodeo in Palm Springs in 2005. The board has authorized a committee to review this option and explore the issue, with a goal of making a decision in February, when, by chance, we're in Palm Springs for the last board meeting of the GSGRA "year". Doug Graff has agreed to chair the committee and will be coordinating the committee work with Thom Brennan. If you like to play a role in this committee please contact either of them, or me, and we'll get you up and running. One of the other new things we're looking into is a joint marketing campaign for out of state rodeo programs and publications that are out of each chapter's territory. When you go to the Phoenix Rodeo in January check out our test drive of this marketing idea and let us know what you think. I'd like to thank the LA Chapter, and in particular Larry and Cody, for helping drive this proposal forward. Wishing everyone the best in the new year.

See ya at the rodeo,
Jabby

Time To Get Educated

This month we are going to follow up on calf roping with discussing the "dip". You get this dip with more elbow and wrist action, and by moving in to the target, increasing the downward angle of your loop as it swings. This dip is vital in calf roping, because it makes the loop curl upward, behind the calf's head; a loop that doesn't curl could catch a front foot as well as the head. That's a bad catch that sets up a difficult tie.

Team G.S.G.R.A.

You want a smooth, rapid swing; donut slow down the loop just before you throw- keep it going at the same rate of speed, quick release, extending your arm and fingers for good follow-through. Then rip the slack out and pitch it high. You can hold one or two coils of rope in your other hand; it really doesn't matter, just whatever you find you can handle best. Hold the coils high and close to the hand you are roping with.

Practice roping the dummy from different angles and different distances. In competition, you won't always have a perfect throw. If you've practiced throwing from different positions, you'll be ready to adapt to different conditions that arise in the arena. The whole idea of practicing is to train your muscles and your reactions. Your mind and muscles should automatically react to the situation at hand. This can only happen with lots of practice.

I will talk about your mental attitude during practice in the February article. This information provided the book Calf Roping by Roy Cooper which is part of our GSGRA Library.

The Hi-Tech Dilema!!!

From the GSGRA mail bag:

In a far, far away land. Away from the city traffic and poor air quality live 2 lesbians on 5 acres with nothing but wilderness and fresh air --- in a house that has no county water, no county gas, no cable TV - but we do have a well, trucked in propane, and satellite. To add to that, we trek 3 miles on a dirt road to get our mail from a rural mailbox at the nearest paved road.....of course, all of this in trade for where I lay my head at night is worth every part of it..... So, why am I writing you all of this mumble jumble --- I read in the December Chute that it is going "hi tech" and soon to be delivered via email.....With everything said above, I regret to inform you that there is no such thing as DSL in my neck of the woods and sending me the Chute via email will absolutely crash my computer every month. If possible, I would like to opt to continue to receive my Chute via pony express thank you.

Editors Note: The above is one of several responses to our Hi-Tech announcement last month and definitely the most picturesque. Several were in favor and welcome the change, others were not so enthusiastic!

The answer, fear not, nobody will be left out. When we make the move, everyone will be given the opportunity to opt out and those that do will continue to receive their monthly rodeo fix by pony express!

Watch your mailboxes (snail and electronic) for more news.

The Archives Committee Needs YOU...

In anticipation of our 20th Anniversary year, a committee has been established to document and celebrate our past...the people, the events, and the history of our great organization. Our specific mission - "...to build a repository of our history so that all who follow can place into context the deeds and accomplishments of our predecessors." To that end, we have developed a number of objectives and an Action Plan. A committee of members representing every chapter has been formed at the state level and the work has begun compiling and organizing a complete history of the Golden State Gay Rodeo Association.

An arduous task to say the least, the process of establishing the official Archives for the association will require participation and support from everyone. While we have a tremendous amount of information and data available...we will be looking for contributions and donations from our entire membership...past, present and future!

What can you do to help? At this point we are looking for contributions of any type of Rodeo memorabilia you are willing to part with. It can be anything from old Rodeo programs or posters to photographs from past GSGRA events to Rodeo pins, T-shirts or Ribbons. We will be compiling the who, what, when, and where and would like to supplement the written records with visual representations whenever possible. Stay tuned for more specific requests, updates and further information about the committee and our progress. In the meantime, if you have anything you'd like to contribute, please feel free to send it to the Committee Chair, Steve Wollert or talk to one of the Chapter Archives Reps listed below:

Royalty Report

The following was published at the gates of Buckingham Palace....

Well, we have a great year to look forward to with our new Royalty Team. Eric, Phillip, Anita and Angelica are all very excited to get out and represent GSGRA.

I am happy to inform everyone of the charities that benefited from their required pageant fundraisers. Each of them had to raise a minimum of $500 for a charity or charities of their choice. Money was raised for The Center of Long Beach, The San Francisco A.R.C. Center, The Transgender Law Center, The AIDS Emergency Fund and The Breast Cancer Emergency Fund.
Great Job!

G.S.G.R.A. Members of the Royalty Team have been seen at several events already. Events such as the Las Vegas Coronation, A Holly Dolly Christmas Show hosted by Mr. IGRA 2004 and many other Holiday Christmas Charity shows. Members of the Royalty Team will make their IGRA debut at the Phoenix Rodeo. Watch for two new Goat Dressing teams this season.

The Royalty Team would like to remind everyone that they are looking forward to working with all of our communities across the Golden State and invite you to keep us informed of the events in your area. Please drop us an email anytime by visiting the Royalty page on the GSGRA website.

Thank You,

John Carrillo

Letter From Your President

I hope each and every one of you had a GREAT holiday season! Thank goodness the busiest time of the year is finally starting to wind down and we can start concentrating on rodeos again! Speaking of rodeos, I hope many of you from the Bay Area Chapter that are attending the Phoenix Rodeo are successful in bringing home lots of buckles and ribbons! I'm sure you will represent both GSGRA as well as the Bay Area Chapter extremely well.

I also wanted to thank Deana and Eric for doing such a wonderful job at the "Holly Dolly Christmas" show at the Edge. All of you who performed did a GREAT job! And who ever thought that soap suds looked so much like snowflakes? Hmmmm.....interesting. We might have to borrow that idea for a rodeo party!

One last thing I'd like to mention is the upcoming beer-bust that we are hosting at the Eagle Tavern on Sunday, February 15th. That is Valentine's Day weekend, it's also IGRA University weekend, and it's also IBR (International Bear Rendezvous) weekend! We will need several volunteers for this event, especially since many of you will be at IGRA University. Doug Graff and Clint Johnson are in charge of this event, so please feel free in contacting them if you'd like to help out. All of your efforts would be greatly appreciated. This event has the potential of being an incredible event for the chapter. I hope to see many of you there!
