Report from the President

Brian Rogers

First, I want to welcome our newest Board member – Ken Wells. Ken was appointed by me to complete the term of Dick Casola who is moving to Phoenix to take a new job. Ken has served NGRA in many capacities over the years and is a welcome addition to our board.

I must also announce the resignation of Board Member Richard Schlegel who has contributed immensely to the success of this organization. His resignation means that NGRA needs to fill an open Member at Large position. The term ends in June of this year.

On February 23-25, NGRA hosts IGRA members from across the country for IGRA University. The board recently approved payment of tuition for up to 10 NGRA members who complete at least three courses or volunteer for two hours and complete at least two courses. Sign up online at www.igra.com. There are still a few spots left, so if you're interested in learning from the best and brightest in IGRA – jump on this opportunity to attend IGRA University without the expense of travel OR tuition.

That weekend, we will host public events that should be a huge blast for our out-of-town guests and the locals as well. Friday night, we treat our guests to the annual Wild N Wooley Wodeo at Charlie's. At this hysterical and fun evening, folks can register for wild "wodeo" events and win real ribbons. On Saturday, Melissa Lorence hosts Boogie Wonderland. Dance to the sounds of the 70's and 80's and wear your funkier disco outfits and enjoy super hot disco entertainers!

On Sunday, The Pinnacle Las Vegas sponsors "A Night with Oscar!" The Pinnacle Bus will pick up University attendees at The Tuscany Hotel and convey them to The Pinnacle offices on Tropicana just west of The Orleans where a "Red Carpet" cocktail reception will be held at 3:30 PM. While the bus will be filled by University attendees, NGRA members are welcome to drive over and enjoy the red carpet reception and cocktail party and learn about our newest sponsor, The Pinnacle Las Vegas!

Following the cocktail reception, the IGRA U bus and NGRA members will depart the Pinnacle offices for Charlie's Las Vegas where we will all enjoy a live broadcast of the Academy Awards on large projection screens. The bus will return IGRA U attendees to the Tuscany.

Make your plans to come out and welcome IGRA in a big Las Vegas way!!

CONTESTANT RESULTS

Lorry King - Trustee

The first rodeo of 2007 was in Phoenix on January 13-14. Unfortunately, it was freezing, and many of us ended up with wind-burned faces and wishing we had warmer clothes! NGRA had four contestants: Richard Armstrong, Pete Dube, Lee Hale, and Cindy Edlund. All four tried their best in the bitter cold, but only Richard earned points. He scored a 7th place in Pole Bending on Saturday and a 6th in Flag Racing on Sunday, along with a 3rd in Barrel Racing on Saturday and a 5th on Sunday. This placed him in 3rd overall for Barrels, which earned him added purse money.

Pete carried our flag on horseback in Grand Entry both days and a good-sized contingent, led by our Mr. NGRA and Mr. NGRA 1st Runner-Up marching with our banner in Grand Entry on Saturday.

There are no rodeos in February, but March brings us the Big D Rodeo, March 2-4, in Dallas.

NGRA is looking for creative, artistic people to submit artwork for our "BigHorn Rodeo 2007" which takes place September 21-23, 2008.

Entry deadline is April 2, 2007, at which time the submission will be presented to the Rodeo Planning Committee for consideration.

Design Guidelines

5. There must be space available on the poster to include the location for the rodeo, which is Horseman's Park on E. Flamingo.
6. There must be space available on the poster for national and local sponsors for this event.
7. The poster must include the prices and location of the host hotel.
8. The artwork must be high-resolution (minimum 300 dpi) and must be able to facilitate printing from a 5" X 7" card to a 20" x 30" poster.
9. Required logos may be found on NGRA website: BigHornRodeo.com

Submission Rules

Fundraising Report

Lawrence Guerra

NGRA held two great events in January bringing in a total of $1,449. At Charlie's Las Vegas we held our 2nd annual "Best Butt in Jeans Contest". As you can see from the picture shown the selection was diverse and not a bad set in the lot. Although a lot of members and customers of Charlies were in Phoenix for the Road Runner Regional Rodeo there was a great showing of guest and entertainers.

On the 4th Saturday of the month our Country Fair was held at our home bar, Badlands Saloon. This was a fun event and the games we played made for a great evening of entertainment. Just imagine guys hopping around with there legs stuck in gold threaded lame gunnysacks trying to pick up Cow Patties. Then we witnessed the flexibility of those that participated in NGRA's jumbo twister game. It's really amazing the contortion one strives for in order to become a winner.

NGRA thanks all those members and guest who volunteered their time and contributions to having a successful fundraising month. Look throughout this newsletter or go to our website ngra.com for up coming events.

TRUSTEE'S REPORT

Lorry King

After I spent the weekend of January 12-14 at the Phoenix rodeo as Assistant Secretary, I stayed on in freezing Phoenix to attend the IGRA Board Meeting. Thank heavens that was held in a warm hotel! I thought I would turn into an icicle at the rodeo grounds! You know us desert rats can't take that cold weather! Of course, you had freezing weather here in Las Vegas while I was gone, but at least you could stay inside your warm houses!

Two rodeo dates for 2007 were changed, so if you were thinking about attending Little Rock or Kansas City, check the IGRA website or this newsletter for the new dates. If you're planning on going to Denver or Ft. Lauderdale, make your hotel reservations soon; they are filling up fast and Denver will not be allowed to extend their rate.

As you know, Finals 2007 will be in Denver. Well, so will Finals 2008! Denver was the only association that submitted a bid for 2008, so that Finals will take place October 10-12.

Since IGRA lost Bud Light as an international sponsor we have had challenges getting a sponsorship program in place. Currently, each association is responsible for bringing in sponsors, so if you work for a national company, or know someone who does and have any contacts, please let me know. We have an informational package and people to present it, so you won't have to do more than give us the contact if you don't want to, but please pass along any helpful ideas.
