2016 Royalty Contestants

The first fundraiser of September at Charlie's was also the time our President Ken Hruby announced the two Royalty Contestants for 2016.

NGRA 2016 Board Election

Election time is quickly approaching and NGRA needs you! If you have never held a board position with NGRA, this is a great time to consider putting your name in the hat to have a chance to make a difference and play an active part in the decision-making process!

Ballots will be going out immediately after the November Board and General Membership Meeting on Monday November 16th where nominations will officially close. All positions except Trustee are up for election. There are two executive board positions: President and Secretary, in addition to two Director positions. The terms for President and Secretary are two years, and the Directors are one year. To be eligible to run for the executive board, you must have been a member for at least 180 days; to run for a Director position, you must have been a member for 90 days. If you are interested in or considering running for the board, please contact our Election Coordinator and Trustee, Guy Puglisi at trustee@ngra.com as soon as possible.

Those running for election will need to provide a brief biography with a little personal and/or professional background including any accomplishments or qualifications they wish to share with our membership. If you have any questions about the duties, you can find this information in the NGRA Bylaws which are available on the NGRA website at www.ngra.com, or feel free to contact Guy or any other current board member.

Members who have provided an email address will receive their ballots via email using Survey Monkey. In the event we do not have an email address on file, a ballot will be mailed to you.

NGRA Volunteers are the best (...but we need more of them)

I have known for quite a while that NGRA volunteers are amazing people but I've been recently reminded of just how amazing. On September 12th, we hosted "Fiesta Independencia" at Charlie's and, like all other fundraising events, it takes a lot of volunteers to put it together. On top of those volunteers, we had two members, Efrain Cervantes and Julio Cesar, spend a few weeks going around town, selling raffle tickets for custom-designed boots. Now that the raffle is over, I look forward to seeing a picture of the final product, once the boots are made to the winner's specifications.

In addition to "Fiesta Independencia", we, like all of Las Vegas' Gay Community, recently celebrated Gay Pride. Again, NGRA people came through like never before and in this newsletter, you'll see pictures of the NGRA Float. I couldn't even begin to tell you how many man-hours were put into making that float. I'm not going to mention everybody because 1) I don't want to inadvertently forget somebody and 2) this article would be too long. I'm not going to mention everybody but I do want to mention our Pride Float Coordinator – Matt Todd. What Matt did was nothing short of amazing. Aside from loaning us his trailer, Matt personally built all the rails and the stage that were part of the float. As the Float Coordinator, Matt led his team of NGRA volunteers in building the float, walking the parade route, and tearing down the float. Every step of the way NGRA's volunteers were there doing anything they could to help.

As I write article, I am bursting with pride – pride over the NGRA volunteers – the people who really do make this such a great organization. As the title of this article implies though, we need more volunteers. With new volunteers comes new ideas, new skills and new friends. If you are interested in volunteering to help NGRA at any of its upcoming events, please email Carolyn at volunteers@ngra.com. Please don't be intimidated. If your schedule only allows you to volunteer occasionally, we can work with that. If you're looking for something more involved, we can work with that too. You tell us what level of involvement you're looking for and we can accommodate that. NGRA volunteers are the mainstay of this organization and without them, there would be no NGRA.

To all volunteers, I can't begin to thank you for all you do. Your selfless contributions have made this a great organization and it's because of you, that NGRA has been able to donate over $5,000 to local organizations so far this year. Again, thank you so very much for all you do.

Fiesta Independencia Charlie's Saturday, September 12th

As well as our usual beer bust, shots and game of chance, this night we had Efrain Cervantes and Julio Cesar reaching the final drawing for their decorated boot raffle. Back in August they printed the tickets and started a round of bars selling them. The prize winner could pick the boot of his choice and have it decorated. Look out in future editions for pictures of the winner and his boots. This is the second time Efrain and Julio have run this raffle for NGRA and they raised over $340 by doing this and were awarded Men of the Month for their efforts.

As well as the main boot raffle Efrain and Julio had a number of smaller prizes on offer

With so much going on that night it would be easy to forget the regular activities at Charlie's that night.

Our Treasurer, David Herring, selling the beer bust

A good looking prize table for our game of chance, and another bunch of lucky winners

Thanks to all our performers:

Alex Michaels

Bootsy Carmichael
Boy Earl
Dawg
Diana Prince
Mandi Barbarelle
Matt Cox
Phil Lombardi
Taylor Trash;
Traci Foxx, and
Winnie Baygo

Also thanks to Ken and David Wells on the prize table, Phil, Brian and Chad for selling shots and David Frye and Buzz Green for selling the game of chance cards.

Once again our thanks to everyone who contributed to the success of the night especially the staff of Charlie's for their hospitality. The night raised nearly $600 for NGRA.

Pride Float Construction Tuesday, September 15th to Friday, September 18th

Isn't it amazing how a simple offer can grow into a major but enjoyable commitment? "Well you could build the float in my yard." So after many meetings our parade coordinator Matt Todd gave way to his urges and bought a 40ft trailer to lend to NGRA as a base for our float. Thus it was a part built float left Matt Todd's home and set out for Barry and Carolyn's back yard.

Work started in Barry and Carolyn's yard on the Wednesday before the Pride Parade and over the days a willing gang of workers made up of Ken Hruby, Buzz Green, Vic Raquel, David Wright, Ken and David Wells, Will Holland and Barry painted, nailed and screwed (the Float that is). Helped on their way by copious amounts of Carolyn's chili, iced water and Rockstar the structure took shape.

Throughout this Matt and his friend Alex were rushing about shopping for essentials, getting straw, balloons, saddles, tack and all the essentials for a good job. And in between that he had to keep the workers in order and make sure they stuck to his master plan.

Finally the time came to ease the float out of the yard, down the cul-de-sac and onto the roads to make it to our position in the lineup. Still unfinished decorating work continued apace Downtown

We were joined by Jeffrey Neal and a curious crowd waiting to see what would happen. And happen it did.

Barry wrapped lights around the structure. David Wright, Buzz and Vic secured straw bales, saddles and tack to the inside of the fence whilst Matt set up a great sound system.

Pause for a smile

One man works and five men watch. Totally normal, I guess

Isn't he lovely? Jeffrey our Secretary

Such concentration from Vic

Setting up the light fantastic: Barry and Buzz

Seems we left a grand trail of straw along the parade route as we drove along. Many thanks to the street cleaners for tidying up after us.

Undoubtable, as far as the crowd were concerned at least, the star of the float was our live singer, Sheila Del Monte, who belted out firm favorites such Rocky Top and Black Velvet. We are really grateful to her for joining us and looking so fabulous.

Sheila Del Monte

Pride Parade

Ready to roll.

Finally we were off. The current Royalty, Taylor Trash and Dawg were joined in the front truck by Contestant's Phil and Traci.

Next came Matt's truck, complete with a pair of Big Horns lashed to the Bull Bar, pulling our Float

Our new NGRA banner looking good

Gary Segal and Johnny Bob Dalton, looking their cowboy best, engage with the crowd

Behind the NGRA float came the IGRA contingent walking with their banner, and an amazing picture display of changing images of rodeo and advertising Finals.

Back on the NGRA Float

Vic enjoying himself after the hard work. The hat suits him.

A great way to make new friends. Buzz and Vic hit it off.

Finally a chance to sit down.

So very soon the thrill of the Parade was over and the work of deconstruction started. Decorations were removed and stowed for safe transport back to the yard. It was gone 2 o'clock on Saturday morning before all was safely stowed and the trailer parked up.

Pride Festival 500 South Grand Central Parkway Saturday, September 19th

Well NGRA could not rest on the excitement of the night before. By 10 the next morning some of us were up and setting out our stalls, one to sell drink tickets and the other to dispense water and soda.

Two new volunteers, David Frye and Delmar Neeley made a magnificent team on the second shift on the drink table. They followed another amazing duo Brenda Lee Luce-Alday and Kathy Alday. The third shift was made up of Johnny Bob Dalton, Gary Segal and Buzz Green.

Barry Jones manned the soda table all day assisted by Phil Lombardi and Jesse Guerrero with, pictured above, Sean Stuart and Ken Wells. As ever under the watchful eye of our President Ken Hruby. All looking very smart in their NGRA volunteer t shirts.

The joint efforts of all these volunteers raised over $800 for NGRA through the Pride Love Program. Thanks to everyone.

While this was going on our Royalty strutted there stuff on the main stage.

Mr NGRA 2015, Dawg

Miss NGRA 2015, Taylor Trash

Float Deconstruction Barry and Carolyn's Home

In the days that followed Pride the construction crew re-assembled to disassemble the Float. Tools were returned to their rightful owners, saddles and tack returned, straw unloaded and stacked, flags and banners sorted, poles and barrels needed for Finals tidied. Lights untwined and packed away till Christmas. And masses of straw swept from the trailer and finally vacuumed from the house mats. All to the accompaniment of more chili, hot dogs, water and Rockstar.

Finally that great big structure became the small pile safely gathered in and stored in the garage ready for next year. And now the planning for 2016 starts.

If anyone wants some bedding straw get in touch. 6 Bales can be yours for a small donation to NGRA.

Harvest Hoedown Badlands Saloon Saturday, September 26th

Barely pausing for breath the Fundraising Team turned out again to one of our favorite bars for a Harvest Hoedown. However, due to the trail we left behind at Pride, we did not bring the straw bales into the bar, just our two boxes of prizes and snacks.

Miss Kitty Litter took the mic' to tell the customers what was happening, making sure everyone knew when a prize had been won. Many thanks for an amazing and entertaining effort.

Kitty Litter with some of our prizes

Once again David and Ken Wells made our prize table look super, showing off the 30 prizes on offer to best advantage.

A glamorous looking Miss Kitty (aka Barry) sold the chance cards

And who could get passed the wit and repartee of Gary Segal and Johnny Bob Dalton on beer bust right by the entrance.

Kitty was ably assisted by Will Holland who collected the cash and passed out the snacks to those who did not win a major prize.

This winner was a bit shy!

But this one wasn't

A lovely lady winning our star prize of an $80 token for Tacos and Beer.

Fresh from running the boot raffle earlier in the month Julio Cesar was rewarded by winning a bar tab. No doubt Efrain will help him spend it.

Thanks to everyone who helped us raise over $500 for NGRA especially the bar staff at Badlands for being so welcoming.

A Tale of Two Mondays

September 21st NGRA Board Meeting

Here at the Center for our monthly Board meeting. Nice to see familiar faces ready to talk about the running of NGRA. These included 5 non-board members along for the general membership portion of the meeting. We spent an hour or so talking about various issues like a bid to host the IGRA Convention in Las Vegas next year, the upcoming Royalty competition, fundraising and budgets. If you are interested read the minutes.

<http://www.ngra.com/Meeting%20Minutes/2015/2015.09%20Meeting%20Minutes.pdf>

Remember any member is welcome to attend the Board and general membership meeting every month to find out what is happening and have their say. Why don't you come along?

At just after 8.30 we were free to go so Barry and I headed to our local In-N-Out burger. Animal fries out under the stars (well out in their parking lot).

September 28th Monday Night Football at Charlie's

Well what a contrast but again for the good of NGRA. Brenda Lee Luce-Alday and Kathy Alday host Monday Night Football at Charlie's. Free food (tonight it is chili, nachos and fixings) 2 for 1 drinks and various opportunities to win a prize. Yes Barry did win one. And Family Apparel garments available for a donation.

I know nothing about American football but everyone else did and the sight of grown people periodically running round the dance floor waving their arms in joy was something to see. I shall definitely be going next Monday. Why don't you join me?

Fundraising

A busy month in September with a lot more to come in October. You will have seen elsewhere write ups of the Fiesta Independencia and Harvest Hoedown events. My thanks to all who helped with these especially Julio Cesar and Efrain Cervantes for organizing the raffling of a wonderful decorated pair of boots. Look out for photos of the winner with his boots in a later edition.

October 3rd sees the Men of Charlie's contest benefiting NGRA. NGRA will be providing the entertainment for the night including wodeo games, singing, line dancing and more. I am asking all the Men of Charlie's who are NGRA Members to turn out and support me in making this a contest night to remember, getting back to the cowboy roots of it all.

As World Gay Rodeo Finals is in town and happening on the second weekend in October our regular fundraiser at Charlie's is moved to the third weekend, October 17th, and as Halloween approaches we ask you to join us on Elm Street. I have no idea what will happen but I bet it will be good and maybe a bit scary.

After that, on October 24th we move to Flex with a Spooktacular night of entertainment. Again be there to see what we can do.

And don't forget at any of these events you will have a chance to meet the Royalty Contestants for the 2016 titles.

Would you like to buy an original picture?

Thanks to the generosity of ROC- N-ROW Studio in Phoenix we have two original western-themed pictures for sale over the next couple of months. The first one on offer is based on Rodeo and is shown below. The second one below that is early morning scene of a group of cowboys.

You can see these on display at Finals but if you would like more details get in touch.

We are open to bids for these wonderful works of art. Make sure to check them out.

From Your Volunteer Coordinator

Pride Parade

What can I say about the dedicated band of construction workers and decorators who turned out such a wonderful Float. A credit to NGRA all round. And good fun while we did it with a great time at the deconstruction party on the Sunday after Pride. Thanks to our leader Matt Todd and his helpers, Ken Hruby, Ken Wells, David Wells, David Wright, Vic Raquel, Buzz Green, Will Holland, Alex and Barry Jones. When we arrived at Fourth Street we were joined by Jeffrey Neal for the decorating part of the preparation. Thanks to all of you for making this a wonderful night for NGRA.

Pride Festival

Despite being tired from the exertions of the previous days many of the people who were so busy on Friday came out on Saturday to help at the Pride Festival. NGRA were manning two stations, one selling drinks tickets and the other dispensing water and soda. They were joined by Brenda Lee Luce-Alday, Kathy Alday, David Frye, Delmar Neeley, Gary Segal, Johnny Bob Dalton, Phil Lombardi and Sean Stuart. Between us we raised over $800 for NGRA funds. A fantastic effort all round.

Finals

Well as you read this the World Gay Rodeo Finals, taking place at the South Point Hotel and Casino, will be only a few days away. Since so many people will be coming to rodeo and party in our patch we need to make sure we give them a great welcome.

I know a number of you have already volunteered but if you have not here is a link to the form:

<http://www.igra-wgrf.com/volunteer.php>

I have very few vacancies left but if you can turn out on Friday for set up or Monday for tear down we need you. All jobs are undercover and again, free access to the event. I look forward to seeing you all at this great event.

Benefits of being a Member of NGRA

25% off of all regularly priced drinks at Charlie's Las Vegas. Charlie's is offering 25% off, on regularly priced drinks, to all NGRA Members who are wearing their nametag in the bar. This special is 24/7, 365 so be sure to wear your nametag. (Drink specials such as beer bust, happy hour, shot specials, etc. are excluded).

Survey

It is often said that the strength of an organization is the strength and commitment of members. We are sure we have very talented members but we do not always know the nature of those talents. When planning activities such as the Pride parade float or fundraising events the committee members often find themselves asking "Do we have anyone who can.....who knows about.....?". Often we on the committees try to do everything ourselves and we can end up taking ages and maybe not doing a 100% job. If only we knew who could give us help and advice.

To help us with this you have been sent an invitation to complete a short survey to tell us about your talents. Please fill it in. We may never bother you or you may be able quickly to sort something out for us that leaves us struggling.

You are our best help and support.

Thank you.

NGRA 2016 Royalty Competition

NGRA is proud to announce that this year, we have two candidates competing for NGRA Royalty. Traci Foxx is competing for Ms NGRA and Phil Lombardi is competing for Mr NGRA. On behalf of the men and women of NGRA, we wish both of them the best of luck.

This year's Royalty Competition will take place on Saturday, November 28th. As has been the case in previous years, it will be divided into two phases. Phase 1 will take place Saturday morning, at the Center and Phase 2 will take place at Charlie's later in the evening.

Mark your calendars and we hope to see a lot of people to help cheer Traci and Phil on, as they compete for NGRA Royalty.
