NGRA 2016 Board Election

Election time is quickly approaching and NGRA needs you! If you have never held a board position with NGRA, this is a great time to consider putting your name in the hat to have a chance to make a difference and play an active part in the decision-making process!

Ballots will be going out immediately after the November Board and General Membership Meeting on Monday November 23rd where nominations will officially close at the end of the Meeting. Some positions are up for election. There are two executive board positions: President and Secretary, in addition to two Director positions. The terms for President and Secretary are two years, and the Directors are one year. To be eligible to run for the executive board, you must have been a member for at least 180 days; to run for a Director position, you must have been a member for 90 days. If you are interested in or considering running for the board, please contact our Election Chair, Doug Graff at election@ngra.com as soon as possible.

Those running for election will need to provide a brief biography with a little personal and/or professional background including any accomplishments or qualifications they wish to share with our membership. If you have any questions about the duties, you can find this information in the NGRA Bylaws which are available on the NGRA website at www.ngra.com, or feel free to contact Doug or any board member.

Members who have provided an email address will receive their ballots via email using Survey Monkey. In the event we do not have an email address on file, a ballot will be mailed to you.

From your President

Welcome NGRA's new Vice President, Chris Due

At the October Meeting, the Board appointed Mr Chris Due as NGRA's Vice President. Chris has been a longtime member of NGRA and has past Board experience. He's also been NGRA Royalty and he's a rodeo contestant so Chris brings a lot of experiences to the Board and new, fresh ideas and a new perspective. Chris, Welcome to the Board. I'm very much looking forward to working with you.

Wicked Weather inside the South Point Arena at the WGRF Las Vegas, NV 2015

In 2000 (Albuquerque) and 2001 (Palm Springs) Hurricane Andy and Richard Armstrong (NGRA) blew through the IGRA Finals Arena devastating the competition and bringing home the IGRA Finals Flag Race Buckle. Since that time it has been a long 14 year drought, but in 2015 lightning struck twice at the WGRF, and when that lightning struck at South Point Equestrian Center, history was made!

WORLD GAY RODEO FINALS

Stephanie Malone (NGRA) riding SHF Tru Money Pit aka Dude, owned by Stacey Barnett (NGRA), blazed through the pole pattern on Saturday with a 22.20 second run and Sunday with a 22.75 second run to win the Women's Pole Bending Buckle for the 2015 WGRF. Stephanie became the first woman from NGRA to ever win a WGRF Buckle inside the rodeo arena.

They say that lightning never strikes the same place twice, but Shelby Scott (NGRA) proved that theory wrong. Shelby is a young lady of few words, but what she doesn't say vocally, she says with her exceptional riding skills. Shelby and her horse Miss Becky hit the South Point arena at full speed stopping the clock with a 17.10 seconds on Saturday and 16.84 seconds on Sunday, giving her the combined total good enough to win the Women's Barrel Racing Buckle. Another first for the women of NGRA!

These ladies made sure to make a statement! Just like the Category 5 - Hurricane Andy from 2000 & 2001, these ladies made a major impact on the 2015 WGRF! We look forward to watching these ladies repeat history in 2016!

Congratulations Stephanie & Dude and Shelby & Miss Becky; NGRA is very proud of you and the history you made! Maybe we should name a hurricane after each of you???

Men of Charlie's: Man of the Month Contest Charlie's Saturday, October 3rd

October 3rd saw The Men of Charlie's contest happen once again. For those that don't know the Men of Charlie's program began in December 1985 with the idea of printing a calendar. Originally, each man was chosen by audience applause. In 1987, Charlie's of Phoenix, added the contest, and the program was changed to a community supported fund raising event. In 1993, with the opening of Charlie's Chicago, the tradition was continued and still holds true with the newest bar in Las Vegas.

Each location is continues to be committed to raising money for non-profit organizations within their community. They do this through the Man of the Month contest held each month and donating their time to organizations such as rodeo and pride.

Any man over the age of 21 can run for the Man of Charlie's. This tradition now holds over 250 members in the 4 locations and has given over $750,000 back to the community.

On this occasion the event benefitted NGRA and so we returned to some old favorites with a cowboy trick based on rodeo, and line dancing. Two contestants, Joel Laureano and Chad Hinerman, were introduced by Sunshine, the local coordinator and vied for the honor of becoming a Man of Charlie's.

They collected money from patrons throughout the night while MoCs sold shots round the bar. When the time came Guy Puglisi demonstrated the cowboy trick of pole bending on a tricycle.

Chad chose to ride in the saddle:

Joel chose a more upright stance:

Once they had completed the course a number of others had a go to the amusement of the onlookers.

Sunshine then taught us to do a line dance, 'Cowboy Up', and people seemed to pick that up very well.

Finally the monies were counted and Joel Laureano was declared the Man of Charlie's for October 2015 with $490.45 going to NGRA.

Laura Scott, WGRF Assistant Rodeo Director, and David Blackwood (aka Taylor Trash, Miss NGRA) took the opportunity to explain about the upcoming World Gay Rodeo Finals.

Thanks to Charlie's and everyone who helped on the night.

Picture Silent Auction

Back in May one of the vendors at BigHorn Rodeo donated two beautiful original pictures to NGRA.

The owners of ROC- N-ROW Studio from Phoenix were kind enough to think of NGRA and make such a generous donation.

Over the months Jeremy Leckburg framed the larger picture and we chose to put them both up for auction firstly on Facebook and then at Finals where they were displayed on an impressive tripod made by Barry Jones.

Dr Larry Smith, a competitor from California, won the bidding for the sunrise scene.

Gary Segal greeted Brian Rogers when he visited our table to bid on the rodeo picture

Tammy Lord from Las Vegas won the rodeo design.

Together the pictures raised $200 for NGRA funds.

Many thanks to the donors, Jeremy, Barry and above all the ladies at ROC-N-RROW for making this happen.

Traci

It's official!!!! Phil and I have raised a thousand dollars for Camp Aranutiq and the Center within two shows!!!! So happy to announce that each charity is receiving $500.00 from the 2016 Royalty Contestants!!!!

Phil

Wow....don't even know where to start. In two shows Traci Kimberlin and I raised 1000$ for our local charities. I am in such awe that we did this. There are so many people to thank. The management and staff at Flex Las Vegas, the staff and management at Charlie's Las Vegas, all of our performers, The Bears for all their help and support since Day 1 for us, Trouble for helping with raffles at the Freak Show, everyone that came out to support us, NGRA, and so much more. Thank you for showing and supporting, two people that want to make a difference. We have a lot to prove and when we get our sashes after competition and earn them, will keep this up. Thank you again.

Ken Hruby

Traci and Phil, I know I said this to you last night but it's worth repeating. Great job!! You two really put together a great show and it seemed like everybody was having a lot of fun. The Belly Dancers were a great addition, by the way.

Last night alone, you raised $375 for your charities, which I believe takes you over $1,000 between your two shows. I know last night wasn't an NGRA Show but, as far as I'm concerned, you did NGRA Proud. Well done!!

Thanks, Ken

NGRA 2016 Royalty Competition
Charlie's
Saturday, November 28th

For those of you who don't already know this, the NGRA hosts two major events each year. The first, and our most popular, is the internationally famous BigHorn Rodeo. The other, less known but extremely important, is the Annual Royalty Competition. In this event, NGRA crowns its Royalty for the following year.

Just getting to the competition can be difficult. For starters, you have to be a member of NGRA, in good standing, for 180 days prior to the start of the competition — that's the easy part. I'm not going to do the math but that roughly means anybody who joined NGRA after the 31st May was not eligible for this year's competition. Then, 90 days prior to the competition, individuals had to formally announce themselves. That happened in August at Charlie's. Once the competitors had been announced, they needed to demonstrate their commitment to NGRA and to the local community. Each competitor must attend a minimum of three general membership meetings and one board of directors meeting prior to the beginning of the scheduled competition. Additionally, contestants must singly, or jointly, host at least one fundraising event in which the money is donated to a nonprofit organization. They are required to raise at least $250 individually or $500 for a group of two. This year, the candidates have opted to do two joint fundraisers. The proceeds will benefit Camp Aranutiq, Transgender Youth Summer Camp and The Gay and Lesbian Center of Southern Nevada.

NGRA is proud to announce that this year, we have two candidates competing for NGRA Royalty. Traci Foxx is competing for Ms NGRA and Phil Lombardi is competing for Mr NGRA. Don't be fooled though, just because we only have one competitor for each category, doesn't mean it's an automatic win. Each contestant will be judged on personal interview, western wear, entertainment, on-stage public presentation, and spirit/community service. The judging is done by a panel of impartial individuals. The scoring can be a bit complicated but that's actually to ensure everybody has a fair shot at the title. Additionally, some areas carry more weight than others, for example, Personal Interview is worth 100 points but Western Wear maxes out at 50 points. To win the title, each candidate will have to score at least 75% of the total available, which is 300 points. For those of you (like me) who are terrible at math, this means they have to score a minimum of 225 points out of 300 possible. If that sounds easy, I ask you to remember how you felt when you had to take "Public Speaking" in High School. Now imagine being judged on that while you're also being judged on your clothes, your NGRA and IGRA knowledge, and how well you can entertain a crowd.

This year's competition is taking place on Saturday November 28th and is broken down into two areas. The "Closed" portion of the judging will take place at The Center. That's where the contestants will be judged on the Personal Interview and Spirit/Community Service. The "Open" portion (where the public is invited, and encouraged to attend) will take place that evening, at Charlie's, and is where the contestants will be judged on Western Wear, Public Presentation, and Entertainment.

Once the competition is over, and the Royalty Team is announced, their real work will begin. The Royalty Team is required to serve as active members of the Fundraising Committee, which includes putting on monthly fundraising shows. Additionally, members of Royalty Team must represent NGRA in a positive manner at as many rodeos, including BigHorn Rodeo, as physically and financially able (at least one non-NGRA rodeo is required) and they must be visible members of the Southern Nevada Gay Community by attending NGRA fundraisers, and fundraisers for other community organizations, while wearing a sash. In short, NGRA Royalty is the public face of NGRA to the rest of the Southern Nevada Gay Community and the face of NGRA to the IGRA.

As I've already mentioned, this year's competition will take place on November 28th and I encourage all of you to come to Charlie's to witness this amazing competition and to show your support for the two candidates vying for titles. See you on November 28th and don't forget to bring as many $20 bills, $10 bills, $5 bills and $1 bills as you can afford — it is a fundraiser, after all.

Mark your calendars and we hope to see a lot of people to help cheer Traci and Phil on, as they compete for NGRA Royalty. On behalf of the men and women of NGRA, we wish both of them the best of luck.

Traci Foxx – Ms NGRA 2016 Contestant

Traci Foxx is no stranger to the Las Vegas LGBTQ community. She has been active, along with volunteering with various organizations, including NGRA, IGRA, Sin City Sisters, LGBTQ Center, and The Imperial Royal Sovereign Court of the Desert Empire. Traci travels and competes in Rodeo events alongside of working as a cohesive piece of the Arena Crew around the IGRA circuit every chance she gets.

Traci was awarded the Chuck Webb Memorial Buckle for outstanding volunteer service with the Arena Crew in Denver Colorado July 2015. She's won three 3rd place ribbons and one 4th place ribbon in Wild Drag qualifying her team for World Gay Rodeo Finals 2015 in Las Vegas, NV.

When not out organizing, performing, or volunteering at her children's school, Traci is also out raising awareness for children's rights, homeless youth, and one that is dear to her heart, the transgender community.

Traci has chosen Camp Aranutiq of Harbor Camps for her charity this year. They are a transgender youth summer camp where trans youth can get together from all over and just be kids enjoying The summer camp experience.

Traci is the mother of two beautiful children; Braedin and Nicholas, ages 6 and 5 respectively. She is also the fiancée of MsTer IGRA 2015 "Preston". You've heard the saying, "a woman's work is never done" and in Traci's case, this really is true. While the majority of our community is unwinding, taking off our party clothes, makeup or having a cocktail, Traci's work continues on. Tucking her babies in for the night, telling them bed time stories, preparing lunches, laundry, and even assisting her fiancé Preston in raising money for IGRA.

Traci looks forward to the possibility of being the next Ms NGRA 2016 and her ultimate goal is to bring the values of "unity" back to our community.

Fundraising

With a money raising event every Saturday in October it was a demanding but rewarding month raising over $1,360 for NGRA funds. The details of all the events are written up elsewhere so I won't go over these again.

Last month I promised to let you see a picture of the lucky boot raffle winner, Joshua Gunter, with his amazing pair of decorated boots.

Envious? Look out for the next raffle and you might be the lucky one.

From Your Volunteer Coordinator

After a busy September for my willing band we moved into an equally busy October. With two fundraisers as well as World Gay Rodeo Finals we were kept on the move but I always (well usually) got a smile from those who help me. I can't thank them all enough. Life should get easier for the rest of the year so maybe we can get a well-earned Saturday night off.
