The Revitalization of NGRA

It's been pointed out to me, and I've noticed on my own, that NGRA isn't what it used to be. Recently, I looked at some of the Newsletters from 2008 and 2009 (which can be found at the NGRA Website) and looking at just the pictures, you can see the difference. In those pictures, it's evident that NGRA was more of a social group than it is today. The current NGRA puts on Rodeos and puts on Fundraisers but that's it. I want to change that. I'd love to have an NGRA Bowling Day, or an NGRA Hike, Picnic, Volleyball Game, or anything else that you and I (the Members of NGRA) can come up with. NGRA definitely needs Fundraisers, and we need the money that goes with them but I want NGRA to be more than just another bar event where we're asking for your money. Let's make NGRA a social group where people hang out (outside the bars) just to have fun and meet new people.

I love Las Vegas, I've lived here for over 25 years, but it's an extremely difficult place to meet people — especially if you aren't a bar fly. I've got ideas and I know where I want to take NGRA but I can't do it alone. I need your help. I'm interested in hearing from everybody who has an idea but I'm especially interested in hearing from some of NGRA's past. I see past Royalty, and Board Members, all over the place, still in town, just not active like they were in the past and I want to know why. Are they just burned out, I can understand that but if there's more than that — if NGRA isn't what you remember — then help me bring it back to where it used to be. Please, if you're reading this article, print it and put it in front of someone from NGRA's past. Let them know that I need their help and I need your help. If you have an idea, please contact me. I can't do this by myself but with the help of our Members (past and present), we can make NGRA the social organization that it used to be.

NGRA 2016 Fundraising Director Appointment

At the Board and General Membership Meeting held on December 21st, the President called for applications and/or letters of intent from the membership, with a due date of the close of the Board and General Membership Meeting on January 20th 2016.

After the close of the Board and General Membership Meeting on January 20th 2016, the President will forward the received applications and/or letters of intent to the Board of Directors for review.

The Board of Directors will interview candidates at the Board and General Membership Meeting on February 17th. These interviews will take place in front of those members who are present, but the Board may ask other candidates for the position to leave room while interviews for his/her competitors are being conducted.

Following interviews, [and in Executive Session,] the Board will select a candidate by majority vote and announce the successful candidate immediately [after the Executive Session].

Rôle of the Fundraising Director

The Fundraising Director shall:

- chair the Fundraising Committee;
- be responsible for raising funds necessary to or for the operation of the Corporation;
- perform all duties incident to the office and such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time, and
- work to establish and maintain good working relationships with other IGRA associations and local organizations supporting rodeo or similar charitable aims

The Fundraising Committee

The Fundraising Committee exists for the purpose of planning, organizing, and arranging the execution of fundraising and entertainment events.

The Fundraising Committee may consist of, but is not limited to, the following Coordinators:

- Secretary;
- Entertainment;
- Decorating, and
- Volunteer.

All members of the Association are eligible to be members of the Fundraising Committee. Current Royalty are de facto members of the Committee.

The Board of Directors has the authority to cancel any function if the proper procedures have not been followed or if it is not in the best interest of the Association.

The Fundraising Committee must hold at least twelve (12) meetings a year.

No NGRA member(s) may hold or sponsor a fundraiser in another IGRA Member Association's geographical territory without prior approval of the Trustee.

NGRA Rodeo Director Appointment

At the Board and General Membership Meeting held on December 21st, the President called for applications and/or letters of intent from the membership, with a due date of the close of the Board and General Membership Meeting on January 20th 2016.

After the close of the Board and General Membership Meeting on January 20th 2016, the President will forward the received applications and/or letters of intent to the Board of Directors for review.

The Board of Directors will interview candidates at the Board and General Membership Meeting on February 17th. These interviews will take place in front of those members who are present, but the Board may ask other candidates for the position to leave room while interviews for his/her competitors are being conducted.

Following interviews, [and in Executive Session,] the Board will select a candidate by majority vote and announce the successful candidate immediately [after the Executive Session].

Rôle of the Rodeo Director

The Fundraising Director:

- shall chair the Rodeo Planning Committee;
- shall report on the activities of the Rodeo Planning Committee. The report will also be submitted in written format to the Secretary to be included in the Minutes;
- shall appoint committee chairs for the Rodeo Planning Committee and notify the Board of Directors, and
- may sign, with the proper officer of the Corporation authorized by the Board of Directors, checks, deeds, mortgages and bonds

The Rodeo Planning Committee

- A. A Rodeo Planning Committee (RPC) under the leadership of the Rodeo Director exists for the purpose of planning, organizing and executing the Bighorn Rodeo and related events.
- B. The Rodeo Planning Committee may consist of, but is not limited to, the following Coordinators:

- | | | |
|---------------------------|-----------------------------|------------------|
| (1) Assistant Director(s) | (8) Bar | (15) Grand Entry |
| (2) Finance Manager | (9) Contestant Registration | (16) Merchandise |
| (3) Secretary | (10) Program/Advertising | (17) Media |
| (4) Arena/Equipment | (11) Vendors/Concessions | (18) Host Hotel |
| (5) Volunteers | (12) Awards/Buckles | (19) Decorating |
| (6) Security | (13) Ticket Sales | |
| (7) Entertainment | (14) Barn Manager | |

- C. Committee Coordinators shall be appointed by the Rodeo Director and notification given to the Board of Directors. Any position not filled will be appointed as soon as possible.
- D. Coordinators may form sub-committees to facilitate other duties performed by that coordinator.
- E. Rodeo Poster Contest
 - 1) A contest may be held each year to select artwork and/or logo designs for use in promoting BigHorn Rodeo and related events. The contest should be announced in the newsletter.
 - 2) The Rodeo Planning Committee shall vote on the designs.
 - 3) The Rodeo Planning Committee will stage the competition, set and publish all requirements and establish prizes.
 - 4) All entries become the property of NGRA.
- F. The Rodeo Planning Committee shall submit a working rodeo budget to the Board of Directors for approval no later than six months prior to each rodeo. Updated budgets will be reported monthly to the Board and a final budget projection will be presented to the Board for approval no later than 30 days prior to the rodeo. The final rodeo financial report will be submitted to the Board of Directors no more than 60 days after completion of the Rodeo.
- G. All coordinators will submit a full report on their committees thirty (30) days after each rodeo. This report will include problems encountered, what worked, what didn't work, all records and copies of correspondence and a record of expenses. These reports will be compiled by the RPC Secretary and submitted to the following year's Rodeo Planning Committee.
- H. Beneficiaries of rodeo proceeds must be approved by the Board and ratified by the general membership.

Open Position at NGRA: Public Relations Spokesperson

NGRA is looking for a Public Relations Spokesperson. People interested in promoting NGRA, our events, and our people to the public should contact Ken Hruby at president@ngra.com.

Rôle of the Public Relations Spokesperson

The Public Relations Spokesperson shall:

- A. be responsible for arranging publicity for the Corporation's events, through the creation and timely issuance of news releases and through other activities;
- B. be responsible for the external dissemination of information, whether written or verbal, as directed by the needs of the Corporation, and

- C. keep complete and accurate lists of appropriate media for news releases, along with a complete and accurate list of the other IGRA associations.

From your Vice President

I've been an active member of NGRA since 2003 and in 2004 competed in my first IGRA sanctioned rodeo in LA. I was fortunate enough to also attend the Bay Area Rodeo and with the points from LA and the Bay Area I qualified for IGRA Finals in Pole Bending. I was also named runner up to rookie of the year with only 2 rodeos. The person who actually won rookie of the year attended 15 rodeos and outpaced me by 5 points. In 2005 I was awarded the Mr NGRA title as well as the title of Miss Cow Patty 2005. I have been an active competitor on the rodeo circuit, being mounted on some of the best horses out there on the circuit. The few I've been lucky enough to compete on are:

Debs Lil Rocket – Rocky (Multi-Champion)

Proudest Surprise – Cassidy (Multi-Champion)

Go Raise Cash – Cash (Multi-Champion)

Eyes A Silver Bullet – Eyesa (Multi-Champion)

Nickel Dream – Nic (Always the bridesmaid)

Diamond On Command – Diamond (Multi-Champion)

Lyn's Little Gun – Lena (Only competed in 1 rodeo in 2013)

Frenchmans Proudest – Olive (Multi-Champion)

Make It So Sir – Perry (Multi-Champion – One of the most winningest horses on the IGRA circuit) I can't remember how many times, but I believe he has won the IGRA Finals Barrel Racing buckle 5 times.

And soon to be running on Rockin High Effort – Roxy

In 2013 I was once again awarded with the title of Mr. NGRA, where I believe I am the only 2 time Mr. NGRA in history. I look forward to helping grow NGRA.

Perry – Poles (Palm Springs 2015)

Olive – Barrels (Palm Springs 2015)

Cash – Barrels (Phoenix 2010)

Diamond – Flags (San Diego 2010)

Nickel – Poles (Bighorn Rodeo 2008)

Diamond NFR Grand Entry

Presentation to Camp Aranu'tiq Gay & Lesbian Community Center Saturday, December 12th

You may recall that our new Royalty chose two charities to receive the results of their qualifying fundraising efforts. One was the Center and the other was the perhaps lesser known, Camp Aranu'tiq. Ms NGRA, Traci Foxx's half of the proceeds, some $500 went to Camp Aranu'tig which aims to build confidence, resilience, and community for transgender & gender-variant youth and their families through camp experiences. The camp was founded in 2009 by Nick Teich, who dreamed of a safe & fun place for youth who felt like they might not fit in at other camps because of their gender and/or who wanted to be with others like them. They launched their first summer week in New England in 2010 with 41 campers. They now have their own camp in New Hampshire together with flagship summer camps in New Hampshire and California as well as leadership programs for older teens and weekend family camps, serving 400 campers over the course of one year.

Traci wanted to do a formal check presentation. However, the organization is based out of California so instead on December 12 she and our President, Ken Hruby, met with one of the young campers, and a mom, who live here in Las Vegas.

These are their stories.

Thank you for donating to Camp Aranu'tiq. Being able to go to Camp Aranu'tiq is really amazing. I like to go to Camp Aranu'tiq because I can be me and not have to be asked about my gender. I do not feel like I have to be put in a box.

This is the first year I went to any of the Aranu'tiq camps. I went to Family Camp this spring with my Mom. I also went to the California summer camp. I had been to other sleep away camps before. My Mom always had to meet with the leaders about my gender, and discuss my preferred pronoun. Going to Camp Aranu'tiq, I didn't have that problem. When I went to other camps, other kids had issues about my gender. The Camp Aranu'tiq counselors are very reassuring and make me feel comfortable.

This donation to camp Aranu'tiq is important to me because Camp Aranu'tiq is almost like my home. It makes me feel joyful every time I go. Family camp is where you can take your Mom, Dad, Grandparents, Uncles, Aunts, Cousins, Brothers, and Sisters to go have fun together for 2 days. I was scared, confused and I didn't know how to act around other people like me for the first time. Soon I learned how to act around them, just be yourself.

My favorite part about going to camp is all of the fun activities such as swimming and singing camp songs. At summer camp I met an amazing kid like me. We both loved swimming in the pool. At Family Camp we met another family who was nice and fun to be around and had a daughter like me (even though I am a boy.)

One of my heros is Malala Yousafzai. She is one of my heros because she stood up for herself and a lot of other people. Going to Camp Aranu'tiq teaches me how to work together with other people and stand up for myself and other people. I also learned how to be more awesome than I already am.

So, thank you for this donation to Club Aranu'tiq.
Mika

Mom's turn to say "Thank You!"

As a family we cannot say enough good things about Camp Aranu'tiq and how much it has helped our family and learning along this journey. Every penny you have given is appreciated by both of us and every other family associated with the camp. For Mika to be able to go to camp I wasn't sure what we would be able to find now that he has gotten older and gender has become a greater issue for sleep-away camps.

Mika didn't want to go to Family Camp because he is over talking and discussing his gender and he thought that it was going to be like counseling. But it wasn't, it was "camp". When he finally realized that the kids in one of his groups were actually "like, like" him (if you remember elementary school you'll understand what that means) - he was blown away! There were so many kids there his age. When we all dropped our kids off for summer camp it was like "old home week". It was relaxing and fun and we knew our kids were going to have a great time and have the camp experience that all kids deserve.

What Nick, Eric, Morgan, Julie, and the whole team have put together is extraordinary. Thank you for supporting such a remarkable group and we encourage you to continue to do so. If you know a transgender or gender-variant child that could use a camp experience, we highly recommend you recommend Camp Aranu'tiq.

From our family to yours, thank you, L

Country Christmas Charlie's Saturday, December 19th

On the Saturday before Christmas people entering Charlie's were greeted firstly by two sexy cowboys selling the beer bust and then by Peace Bear sitting on our table of prizes. Hidden inside every Christmas stocking was a card directing a lucky winner to one of our premium prizes. And did we have some happy, lucky winners!

One of our sexy cowboys selling the beer bust and cosying up to the bar staff whose support we always appreciate.

Some people just could not stop winning and smiling the night away.

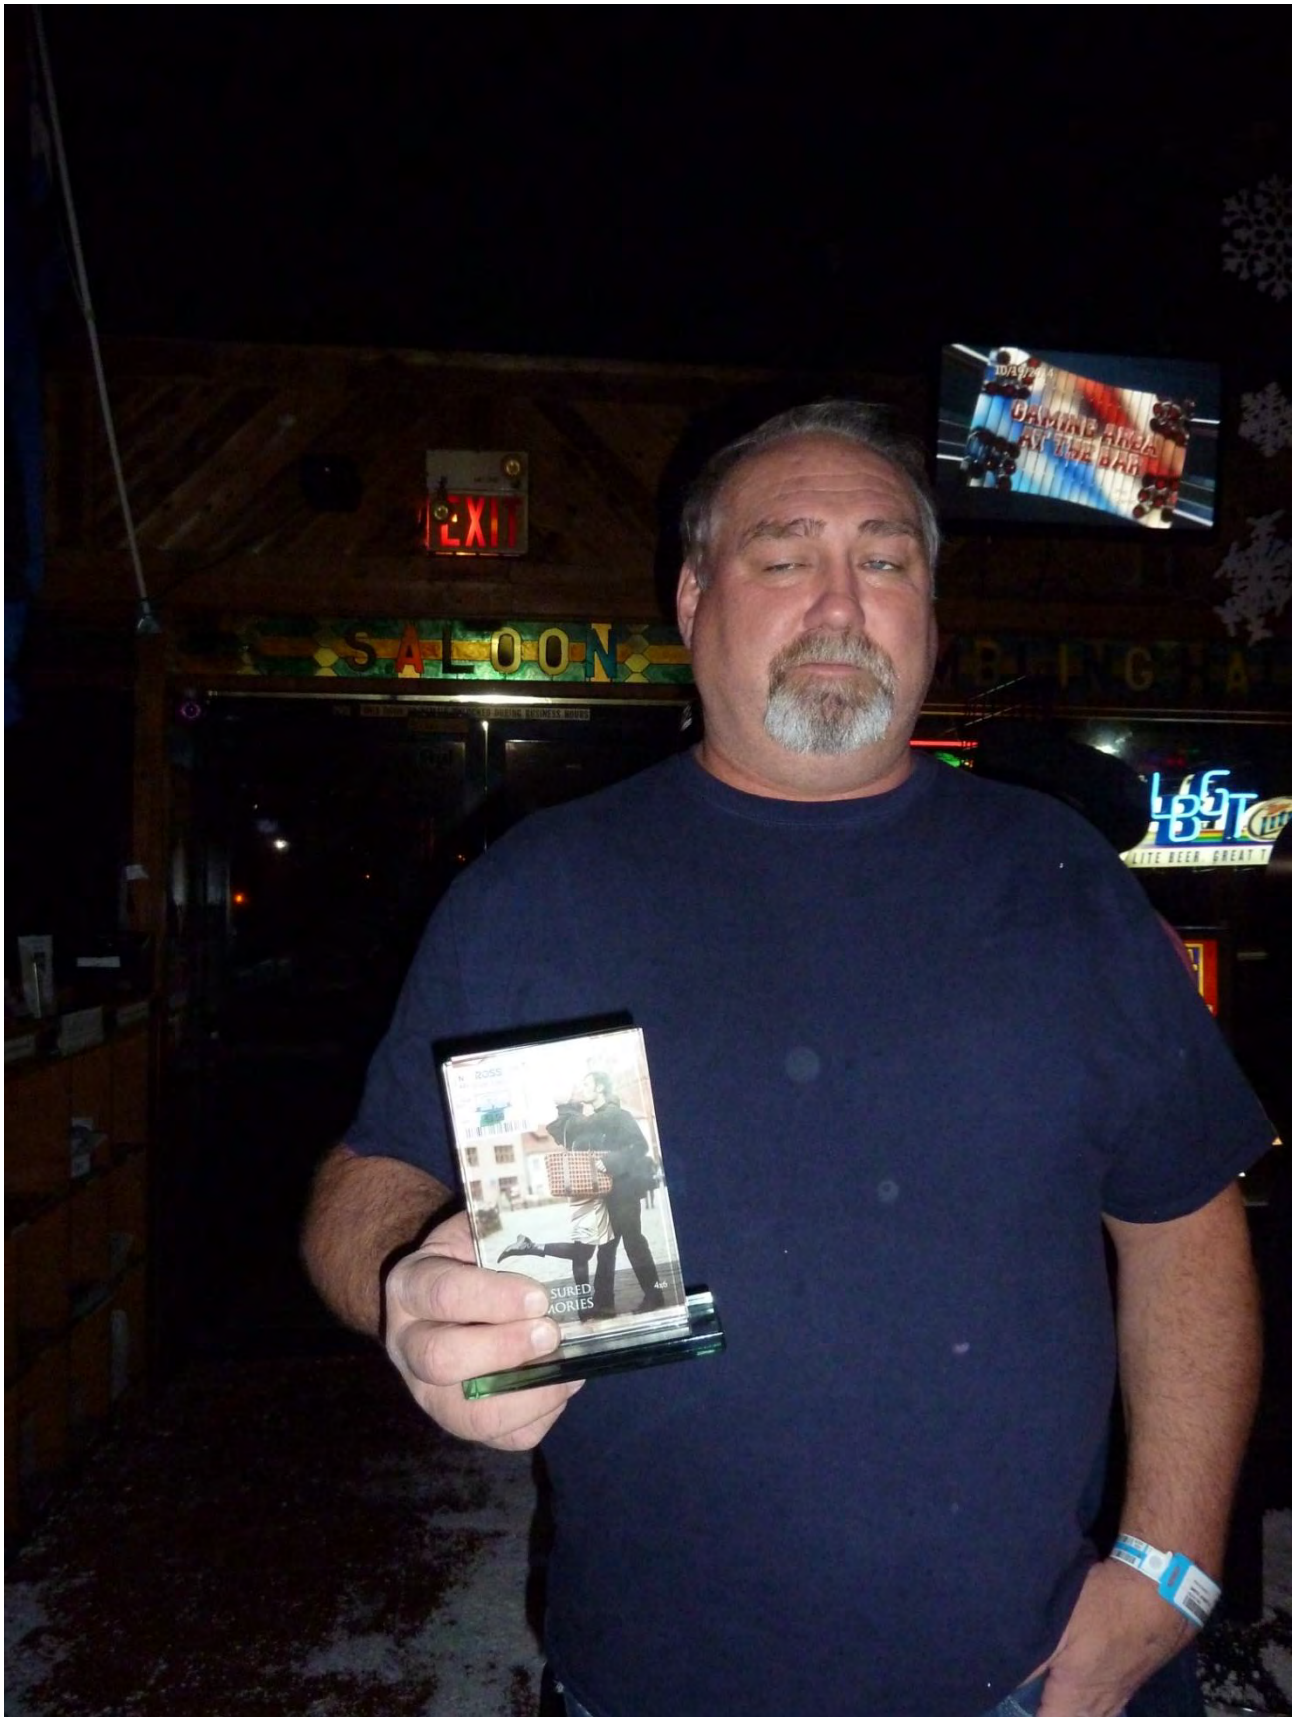

Just as Miss Kitty cosied up to another of our prize winners.

Ex-President Doug Graff falling in love with his pickle tray and, it's that lucky winner again.

Joseph's (Miss Closet Ball 2013) winning at his last NGRA event before leaving town to live in Denver. We wish Joseph all the best in his new life.

Mark Smith looking as though he would rather have won a bottle of Crown Royal than the picture frame. Better luck next time!

As well as the night's entertainment customers were invited to fight a frozen pair of tighty whities to win a goody bag. This was just one of the chances to take part and get your free shot and a chance at a goody bag.

Miss Kitty in festive wear with another happy multiple winner.

David Wells manned the prize table to make sure all winners got their just deserts. Here he helps that man again to pick his second prize of the night. And yes it was more booze. A happy Christmas for him at least.

One feature of the night was the chance to have a second, free game of chance card when you bought your first, providing you brought along some groceries for St Therese. Many thanks to those who did bring items along. The second free card worked for Vic who won himself a bottle of vodka with his free card.

The food items we collected for St Therese.

Shortly after Christmas, Barry and Carolyn delivered the proceeds to St Therese where they were gratefully received by Phillippe as he helped unload a somewhat larger donation from Albertsons. Next time we hope to get even more.

Fundraising

As 2016 dawns I come to the end of my first full year as Fundraising Chair. Late in 2014 the job was thrust upon me as no-one else would do it. Income had been falling and our Association like everyone and everything else needs money to survive. And I must assume you want it to survive.

In the last year doing this job I have learned a lot. The kindness and dedication of many, the love that some still have for NGRA, how much some people will and have done for me.

I owe debts of gratitude to many. The amazing guest artistes that have helped our fundraisers along: Vivienne du Monde; Norma Llyaman; Bootsie Carmichael, and Kitty Litter. To my dedicated Team I take off my hat. They volunteer to help with everything and go above and beyond regularly. So thanks to Buzz, Vic, Ken and David Wells, Chad and Brian, Johnny Bob and Gary for giving up their Saturdays to work for NGRA and also to Bill Watkins for the posters he produces.

Also valuable to me has been the support of our past President Doug Graff and our current leader Ken Hruby who rarely misses an event and steps up when I cannot be at an event.

The Fundraising Team has received donations from many, especially the wonderful bar managers who allow us to enter their bars and, hopefully, entertain their clientele.

We have made over $9,500 during the year to keep NGRA alive.

Disappointments. Yes, I have had a few. The biggest is that with over 100 members I feel very sad at the lack of interest of almost all. Very few offer to help at events, and very few attend events. No one has come forward and suggested events they would like to see organized and hence attend.

This makes it very hard. A few people working two Saturdays a month soon get exhausted and dream of a rest. But we know we have to carry on if we want NGRA to carry on. Additionally, what can we offer the venues who support us if we do not have a following to boost their takings? How long can we rely on their support?

If you feel you could help out, if only once or twice a year, please speak up. If you have a money making idea let me know. It is your NGRA. It does not belong to just the few active workers. If you love it, help it.

Your next event is on January 9th at Charlie's. We shall have an $8 beer bust where you can have any draft beer from 9 to midnight, over $400 worth of prizes to be won as well as shots for sale and entertainment to pass the night away.

The next Fundraising meeting is January 12th at the Center. Please come if you can. Or join us at Flex on January 23rd for more fun times with our Royalty and other great performers.

From Your Volunteer Coordinator

The start of a New Year and, sadly, one without a BigHorn rodeo for us to gather around. So we must make sure we all keep in touch and keep the cowhand spirit alive in this town. So come out and support NGRA whenever you can. Have your say at the General Membership Meetings every month, come to the events we stage and generally recognize that NGRA is you.

To all who do turn our so regularly and help with everything we do, thank you. To those of you who do not as yet you don't know how much fun we can have building a float for the Pride Parade with the vat of hot chili and cold libations that go along with it. Give volunteering a try. You might surprise yourself with what you can do and how much you enjoy working with others for the common good.

Have a wonderful 2016.

Editor's Bits and Pieces

You may ask why there is no announcement of the November Member of the Month? Well although the Board did nominate someone there were not enough members present to meet quorum for the General Membership Meeting so no further suggestions could be tabled and no vote could be taken. The matter, together with the choice of the December Member of the Month will come up at the January Board and General Membership Meeting on January 20th. If you can make it go along, find out what is happening and make sure there are enough people there to choose those deserving members.

The Men of Charlie's contest on Saturday March 5th is for the benefit of NGRA. Please make sure you come along and support the contestants as they raise money for your Association. If all goes to plan, there will plenty of line dancing and two-stepping to pass the night away. BTW, have any of you Men of NGRA thought of being a contestant and competing to become a Man of Charlie's.

Note that the January Board and General Membership Meeting will be held on Wednesday January 20th to facilitate attendance by members travelling back from IGRA University in Tucson.

Note that the February Board and General Membership Meeting will be held on Wednesday February 17th to facilitate attendance by members travelling back from the Roadrunner Rodeo in Phoenix.
