From your President

We have a vacancy on the board — are you interested?

Ladies and Gentlemen, in our March Convention, the membership opted to remove the Rodeo Director as a member of the Board of Directors and revert back to the way we were set up prior to the June 2015 Convention. The reasoning for going back was because there is a requirement that a Director on the Board be a member of NGRA for at least 90 days. After the Aug 15 Convention, we realized that the 90-day restriction made it difficult to find a Rodeo Director because it prevented us from going outside of NGRA, if we couldn't find a Rodeo Director within NGRA. By removing that position from the Board of Directors, we can now look outside of NGRA for a qualified Rodeo Director. All of the above explains how we got here but now we have a position to fill. If you're a member and you're interested in being on the Board of Directors, please contact me at president@ngra.com. If you're considering putting your name in the hat, please understand that being on the Board is more than just showing up for a meeting, or two, a month. If the individual is appointed in May, then there would be 8 more Board Meetings in their term and personally, I'd like to find an individual that can commit to attending at least 6 or 7 of the monthly meetings remaining in that term. Additionally, I'd like to see somebody who is willing to become (if they aren't already) an active member of NGRA, meaning coming to the fundraisers, taking on projects, attending additional meetings and functions. If you're interested in doing this, please make sure it's for the right reasons. Please make sure it's because you want to help NGRA achieve greatness and because you want to give back to the Community. Please do not volunteer if you're just looking to pad your resume within the Southern Nevada Gay Community or because you have some sort of personal agenda — unless that personal agenda is to make NGRA Great and be part of an organization that gives back to the Community.

Ken Hruby

From your Vice President

Happy May everyone! I hope everyone is enjoying spring here in the desert! Many NGRA members are hitting the rodeo road soon to attend the Palm Springs Hot Rodeo, May 6th – 8th. We know the contestants from NGRA will make a good showing! Look for the Hot Rodeo results in the June issue.

Grand Opening, Lone Mountain Equestrian Park and Trail

On April 16th, Richard Armstrong, Kathy Alday, Brenda Alday and I helped Clark County celebrate the opening of the brand new Lone Mountain Equestrian Park and Trail. It was crazy windy but many others equestrian enthusiasts showed up to support this new equestrian facility. If you get a chance, take the trip out to Lone Mountain Equestrian Park and Trail, to see the trail around Lone Mountain and the new covered arena. The facility is located just off Lone Mountain Rd. and the 215.

NGRA President Ken Hruby and I attended a very informative meeting at The Center, where we learned many other organizations, just like NGRA, are looking to work together with others to get maximum benefit from everyone's efforts. The first step was to start a community calendar informing every one of the events happening each month. The calendar is located at www.LGBTQ.vegas and has many NGRA functions listed.

Open Position at NGRA: Public Relations Spokesperson

NGRA is looking for a Public Relations Spokesperson. People interested in promoting NGRA, our events, and our people to the public should contact Ken Hruby at president@ngra.com.

Role of the Public Relations Spokesperson

The Public Relations Spokesperson shall:

- A. be responsible for arranging publicity for the Corporation's events, through the creation and timely issuance of news releases and through other activities;
- B. be responsible for the external dissemination of information, whether written or verbal, as directed by the needs of the Corporation, and
- C. keep complete and accurate lists of appropriate media for news releases, along with a complete and accurate list of the other IGRA associations.

Closet Ball Charlie's Saturday, April 9th

For over a decade NGRA has held its Closet Ball competition in April. This year was no exception. April 9 saw us at Charlie's readying ourselves for the contest. This is a contest to find a serious drag artiste who has not performed in drag for 12 months.

The show was hosted by Miss IGRA First Runner Up Taylor Trash and the performers were organised by Mr NGRA, Phil Lombardi.

A review of the rules had been carried out by Roger Bergman, the judges were briefed, the contestants stood ready. At 10:15 pm the contestants made their entry as their natural selves for the first stage of the judging. A quick parade round the floor, a wave or handshake to the judges and out in the back with a one-hour time limit to turn themselves around with the help of a supporter. Then back to stun the judges with the transformation and entertain them with their performance.

The Judges

Charli Phillips; Katrina Davenport; Vivian Dumonde & David Wright

NGRA is most grateful for those who gave up their evening to take on the onerous task of being our judges. These were that well-known performer Vivianne DuMonde, the NGRA Historian and experienced theatrical dresser (not to mention a pretty good member of our arena crew) David Wright, a previous Mr Closet Ball Charli Phillips (aka Mster IGRA 2015, Preston) and that well respected Miss IGRA 2014 Katrina Davenport.

The Contestants

Two contestants entered the dance floor. The first to be introduced to the judges in his everyday appearance was Troy Peters. After answering a few questions about himself he shook hands with all the judges and made way for that well know DJ, line dance teacher and barman, Joe Harter also known to many as Sunshine. He again answered questions and made a tour of the dance floor before joining Troy to begin their make-overs.

The Transformation

1 hour

1 hour

Both contestants reappeared at about 11.15 pm in their new personas. They both did an outstanding job and the scores were very close but Sunshine emerged as the winner with a score of 392 against 363.

Thanks once again to David Heckman (Bootsy) for making the winners sash.

After the contest Sunshine said "So here's something a little different. Last night I ran for Closet Ball and I WON! Huge thanks to Sergio Daae for all the help getting my look together and to everyone who came out and supported!"

The Performers

Charlie Philips and Miss NGRA - Traci Fox performed great numbers along with Vivianne Dumonde, Katrina – Miss IGRA 2014, Earl Coffman, Shaun Franklin Sewell and Brian Porras. Thanks to all of them.

Game of Chance

As well as judging the contest David Wright set out the prize table and handed out the prizes to our lucky winners.

Miss Kitty and Buzz sold Game of Chance cards

Carolyn and Ken Wells took pictures so you all know what really happened. The camera never lies.

Thanks once again to all the staff at Charlie's for all the support they give to NGRA and to those members of the Court who came on to Charlie's when their own show finished.

Finally, our Fundraising Director, Marcus, said the following "Thank you to everyone for Saturday night @ Charlie's Las Vegas. Great turn out the bar was packed and the newest Closet Ball Queen goes to the one and only Sunshine Vegas great Job. Also I want to give a big Hug and thank you to Troy Peter. He always has one question - what can I do to help? and to Miles Hoffman girl you made no worries. The rain this weekend was a bitch. I am very happy you made it. Carolyn Jones - thank you manning the Beer Bust and Miss Kitty the Game of Change, Miss NGRA, Traci Foxx, and Mr NGRA, Phil Lombardi, and Ken Wells and Carolyn Jones for taking pictures and to the Imperial Court who came out as a group means a lot to me. The Unexpected: Mr NGRA 2016 Event Flex Cocktail Lounge Saturday, April 16th

Wow, what a night. We raised 600 dollars for the Sin City Sisters. Tips, raffles, shots. I had some of the most amazing people out and supporting. Thank you to Nina Nisha Castaneda, Yasmin Diab, Arianna Esquivias, Tessa Ruelos, Justin Schindler, Brian Porras, Chad Hinerman, Amanda Greer, Taylor Trash, Misty Wayves, Koko Wayves, Earl A Coffman, Kayce' Carrasco, Neda Dufour and especially Nikita LaFemme for being my co-host. It was an amazing night and I saw so much love from so much of the community...regardless of gay or straight. Thank you everyone for all help and to the community for all of the support. Also thank you to Vera LaPorte for getting me ready for tonight and dealing with the pre-show crazy.

And a massive thank you to Flex Cocktail Lounge for hosting us and putting up with all my technical difficulties.

AFAN Las Vegas AIDS Walk

We were a small team but we were a mighty team. Thanks to everybody who came out today to help NGRA support AFAN by participating in the 2016 AIDS Walk. — with Kathy Alday and Brenda Lee Luce-Alday.

Editors Bits and Pieces

How many times have you seen on a truck, website, store front or letterhead words to the effect of "Established 19## or 20##"? Does it mean anything? Does it count for anything that something was made a long time ago or that it started a long time ago? Certainly, in the world of antiques, it can mean the difference between something worth thousands of dollars or merely pocket change for a recent cheap imitation. Does a bottle of wine improve with keeping or has it deteriorated so that you spit it out? By now you should be getting a hint of where I am leading. My point is this: "Does it necessarily follow that something automatically improves with age, or that it will continue to be just as good as it always was without regular maintenance and tender loving care (TLC)?"

NGRA was established in 1992. That was 24 years ago. I would hope that anyone would agree with me that an organisation does not last for 24 years unless it is well supported and perceived by its members and sponsors to be doing a good job. But I ask myself: "Will I be able to say in 2020 that NGRA has been around for 28 years?"

Do we use the old anecdote: "If it's not broke[n], don't mend it", or do we think of one slightly cynical definition of life that something is living if it moves.

Blockbuster didn't adapt to the changing times and now it's dead. Is NGRA adapting?

Benefits of being a Member of NGRA

25% off of all regularly priced drinks at Charlie's Las Vegas. Charlie's is offering 25% off, on regularly priced drinks, to all NGRA Members who are wearing their nametag in the bar. This special is 24/7, 365 so be sure to wear your nametag. (Drink specials such as beer bust, happy hour, shot specials, etc. are excluded).

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor;

I think it's time to talk about the future of NGRA. For those of you who don't know me, let me tell you of my past involvement in both GSGRA and NGRA, so you don't think I'm a crackpot (although you might think that anyway, but oh, well). I became a member of GSGRA in the early 1990s and worked as a volunteer at rodeos and conventions. I was one of the founding members of the Palm Springs Chapter and served on its Board. When I retired to Las Vegas in 2001, I joined NGRA, where I served as a Director, Vice President and Trustee. I was Assistant Rodeo Director and Dance Chair and for IGRA, Dance Chair for four years, Division I Trustee Chair for three and Dance, Entertainment and Bar Chair for Gay Games. I have worked as a Timer and Assistant Rodeo Secretary for 13 years and IGRA Royalty Competition Assistant Auditor for many years. I have attended 15 IGRA Conventions as a Delegate and was the Assistant Chancellor at IGRA University, as well as an Instructor for several years. OK, that's only to say I've been around and seen a lot in this organization. I know you're bored, but stay with me.

I have seen many members of NGRA drop out in the last several years. Some have let their membership lapse, some, like me, have simply stopped going to meetings and fund-raisers. Why is that? I think that one of the reasons is that we no longer are a truly charitable organization. I know some of you joined for social reasons, but many of us joined for charitable ones, and even those who joined for fun and games expect there to be a charitable aspect. I don't see that any more. Do you know that last year's rodeo lost money? And that the only money that went to charity was $800 that the Sisters made in tips while tending bar? What happened to the days of our donating thousands to our charity partners? Why is it that virtually all of what the fund-raisers raise goes to the expenses of the Association?

Maybe it's time to re-think our goals. Has rodeo gotten too expensive for us to put on and still make a profit? Would we be better off to simply sponsor a barrel race three or four times a year? (We could add goat dressing for the non-horse people among us.) We could bid to hold the IGRA Convention or University here (as we will do next year) and if Finals stays in Vegas, volunteer at that. Are there ways to trim our Administrative expenses?

I believe it is time to hold a "retreat" to talk about these and related topics. I know it's been suggested before, but not acted upon. We could hold a one-day workshop here in town and have sections on expenses, fundraising, social issues, our future, rodeo, etc. The current Board members could attend, as well as any interested member and especially former members or those who have experience but who are no longer active.

What do you think?

Respectfully,

Lorry King

NGRA Garden Party

For some time, many of you have been asking for an NGRA Event which is not in a bar, not late at night and not a fundraiser but which is in a relaxed, non-smoking environment. Well your wishes have been answered. On May 22 NGRA will be holding a Garden Party for members and their partners and friends.

It will be held at the home of your Newsletter Editor, Barry, and your Volunteer Coordinator, Carolyn.

We shall be having complimentary food, drink, games and maybe even dancing. All you need to do is wear your NGRA badge or bring your membership card along for entry.

If you have a friend or partner who is interested, please feel free to bring them along.

If you have any ideas for entertainment (no lip-syncing) food, or anything else, please let us know.

For further details and to register your interest please go to the NGRA website:

<http://www.ngra.com/index.php/event-calendar/month.calendar/2016/05/28/>

e-mail director1@ngra.com.

We look forward to seeing you for this very different NGRA event. If we get a good turnout and have a successful event, it will be the first of many non-bar based events.

Happy Birthday

Please, stay in your lane.

NGRA is full of well-intentioned people who sometimes get a bit carried away, trying to make sure NGRA is as great as we all want it to be. If you're out, at an NGRA Fundraising Event and see something that just doesn't seem right, please don't try to fix it yourself. There's a good chance that the bar staff is doing exactly what was agreed upon between them and the NGRA Fundraising Director. Similarly, there's a good chance that the entertainer that you think just screwed up is actually doing what they were asked to do and the same goes for the person selling shots, raffle tickets, beer bust etc. I love that so many people are looking out for NGRA's best interests; however, ultimately, each event only has one leader and unless he designates somebody else (in his absence), that leader is our Fundraising Director, Marcus. Please stay in your lane and if you see something that you think needs attention, talk to Marcus.
