From your President

NGRA Fundraising Director

On behalf of the NGRA Board of Directors, I am extremely happy to announce that the new Fundraising Director for NGRA is Chris Sanders. If Chris' name doesn't sound familiar to you, perhaps you know his alter ego "Phat Patty." Chris has a long relationship with NGRA (including being our current Miss NGRA) and with the Royal Court of Southern Nevada. We are extremely happy to welcome Chris to the Board of Directors and especially in such a crucial role. I'd also like to take this time to thank "RJ" Hill-Frank for all his hard work with the Fundraising Committee in 2016 and then leading it for three short months, in 2017. RJ's company is moving him back to Florida so he has to bid farewell to NGRA but I'm sure we'll see him again, at various events, throughout the years.

NGRA Membership Renewal

As is usually the case, we have NGRA Members who, for various reasons, forgot to renew their membership prior to the deadline, making them now Former Members of NGRA. Once again, the Board is offering a chance for all of those past members to renew their membership without having to pay the $25.00 Administrative Fee. Please go to www.ngra.com and then go to "About NGRA" and then "Membership" and, finally, "Become a Member." Make sure you click on "Membership Special" to renew your membership, without having to pay the $25 Fee. This membership does not include an NGRA Nametag so, if you need one, you can also order that on this same web page.

Trustee's News

Here's an update on our Australian friend, Joshua Goyne. The GoFundMe campaign was very successful and exceeded its goal. He came to the US and competed in the Texas rodeo but didn't cover his bulls. However, he did place both days in Wild Drag.

Unfortunately, the North Star Gay Rodeo Association in Minnesota has decided not to hold a rodeo this year. They will go to an every-other-year format. This means we are no longer IGRA rodeo #500. That honor will go to Finals.

The Western Heritage Foundation, a local rodeo organization NGRA has worked with in the past, will hold the 2nd Annual Buttons Warburton Local's Night at Horseman's Park on May 11th at 7pm. The events will be Team Roping, Barrel Racing and Bull Riding. Buttons was a great friend of NGRA and volunteered at our rodeos and helped us with advice and contacts. The entrance fee is $5.00 or three tickets for $10. Miss Rodeo Nevada will be on hand, selling raffle tickets for her organization. Bill Watkins and I will be working at the front gate, so I hope to see you there for a fun night out.
