From your President

NGRA Needs Volunteers

NGRA's got quite a bit going on right now but we need your help to make all of our projects — and NGRA itself — a success. Right now, we need help in a few different areas:

Webmaster

NGRA is in desperate need of a webmaster. We currently have a webmaster but he's been doing it for a very long time and now that the website needs to be recreated, he doesn't have the time. We need somebody who can either create the page or somebody who can maintain the page, if we find somebody else to create it for us. If you're interested, please contact me at president@ngra.com.

Marketing

This has been a longtime vacancy but hopefully we'll find somebody soon. Right now, a couple of members, and I, are stumbling through this but we need somebody who can dedicate a lot more time to marketing NGRA and especially BigHorn Rodeo 2017. If you're interested, please contact me at president@ngra.com.

Rodeo Volunteers

We've got a rodeo coming up, September 22nd through the 24th. We've got a great Rodeo Planning Committee putting everything together and they could use help. Additionally, the rodeo itself takes an Army of volunteers to keep everything going. If you're interested in volunteering with rodeo planning or just helping during the rodeo, please visit this website, to sign up:

<https://www.ngra.com/index.php/bighornrodeo/volunteer/rodeo-volunteer-form>

Pride Parade Float

Las Vegas Gay Pride is the weekend of October 21st. The parade will be Friday, October 20th. NGRA has had a pretty impressive float the last two years and would like to continue that trend; however, before we commit to putting a float in the parade, we need to make sure we're going to have volunteers to help setup the float (starting a few days prior to the parade), put on the finishing touches (that Friday afternoon), and walk in the parade that evening. Additionally, we need people to commit to staying after the parade to help with teardown that night and probably again later that weekend. Unfortunately, this is the same weekend as IGRA's World Gay Rodeo Finals so a lot of members are going to be out of town that weekend. I figure we're going to need at least 10 volunteers before we're able to commit to having a float and even then, it will depend on when they can help out (earlier in the week setting up or walking only). If you're interested, please contact Carolyn at volunteers@ngra.com.

NGRA BIGHORN RODEO IS PLEASED TO INTRODUCE THE 2017 GRAND MARSHALS

Bob Edwards was born and raised on a ranch in Central Montana. He is the youngest of nine children. At the age of 13 his family moved to West Yellowstone, Montana where he graduated. He helped run his parents lodge and motel. He and his mom owned and operated a restaurant. Bob was a certified EMT/Paramedic for Montana before moving to Salt Lake City to continue in emergency medicine. He was also certified as a EMT/Paramedic in Utah.

Randy Larsen grew up in Vernal and Salt Lake City, Utah. He is the youngest of nine children. His chosen profession was computer programming. He has been with the same company in Las Vegas for 28 years. His other interests are photography and music.

Bob and Randy met in 1979 in a popular bar where Bob bartended part-time. They have been together ever since. They moved to Las Vegas in 1989 where Randy continued employment as a programmer, and Bob was an accountant in the homebuilding industry.

The popularity of "New Country" music and rodeo (both straight and gay) were a big part of their lives. They attended many of the IGRA rodeos around the country. It was the rodeo in Phoenix in 1992, when on the way to the rodeo they stopped into Charlie's for a quick screwdriver cocktail. Bob made the comment, "You know, we can do this in Vegas!" The rest is 25 years of wonderful history. A new generation of cowboys and cowgirls keep the dream alive.

"To be chosen as the Grand Marshalls for the Silver Anniversary of the NGRA is the greatest of honors. Looking back, that screwdriver was the best one we ever had!"

Hot Rodeo A.C. Dysart Arena, Banning, CA May 11th – 14th

Here is a picture I took in Palm Springs. It is Stephanie Malone riding the bucking bull during the pool party. She is the only one who stayed on-- all the men fell off!

Hot Rodeo 2017 in Palm Springs/Banning, CA was great fun. We had good weather and the rodeo ran smoothly. Quite a few NGRA members were there, either competing or working. Guy Puglisi was the Rodeo Secretary and I was his Assistant. Doug Graff was the Announcer and Bill Trunzo was his Assistant. A three NGRA Royalty members were Timers and Kathy and Brenda Alday worked the crowd – handing out cards and promoting our rodeo. We had four members compete, including a new member I'd like to welcome to our association – Matt Fain.

Stacey Barnett took a 2nd in Barrels on Saturday and a 3rd on Sunday. Courtney Cole took a 3rd in Poles on Saturday and a 2nd Sunday, which put her in 2nd place for the weekend, as well as 8th in Barrels on Sunday. Stephanie Malone took 8th in Barrels and 6th in Flags on Saturday, and 6th in Poles and 5th in Barrels on Sunday.

Form Brian "B-Bear" Porras Mr NGRA 2017. I was recently in Palm Springs for GSGRA's Hot Rodeo 2017.

Phat Patty Miss NGRA 2017 (aka Christopher Sanders), Jason Dyer Mr NGRA 1st Runner-up and I were official timers for the Hot Rodeo 2017. We met a lot of new people including our fellow Royalty from across the country and had a great time representing NGRA. We attended the pool party where I was asked to model a swimsuit for an auction helping GSGRA raise money for its selected charity.

I also attended the Hot Rodeo award ceremony at Azul Palm Springs and had the opportunity to represent NGRA at the Awards and promote BigHorn Rodeo 2017. Don't forget September 22nd through 24th at Horseman's Park here in wonderful Las Vegas, Nevada. Along with promoting I'm promoting BigHorn Rodeo 2017 and NGRA all across Las Vegas, working with fellow organizations and helping out any way I can.

Congratulations and thanks to Chad.

April Member of the Month

April's member of the month for 2017 is Chad Hinerman "C-Bear". I Brian "B-Bear" Porras nominated him for it due his continued help with NGRA and stepping up at the last minute during NGRA's fundraiser "April Showers" to sell Jello shots. Chad is always willing to help out in any way he can. Thank you for all your support to NGRA, Chad.

Benefits of being a Member of NGRA

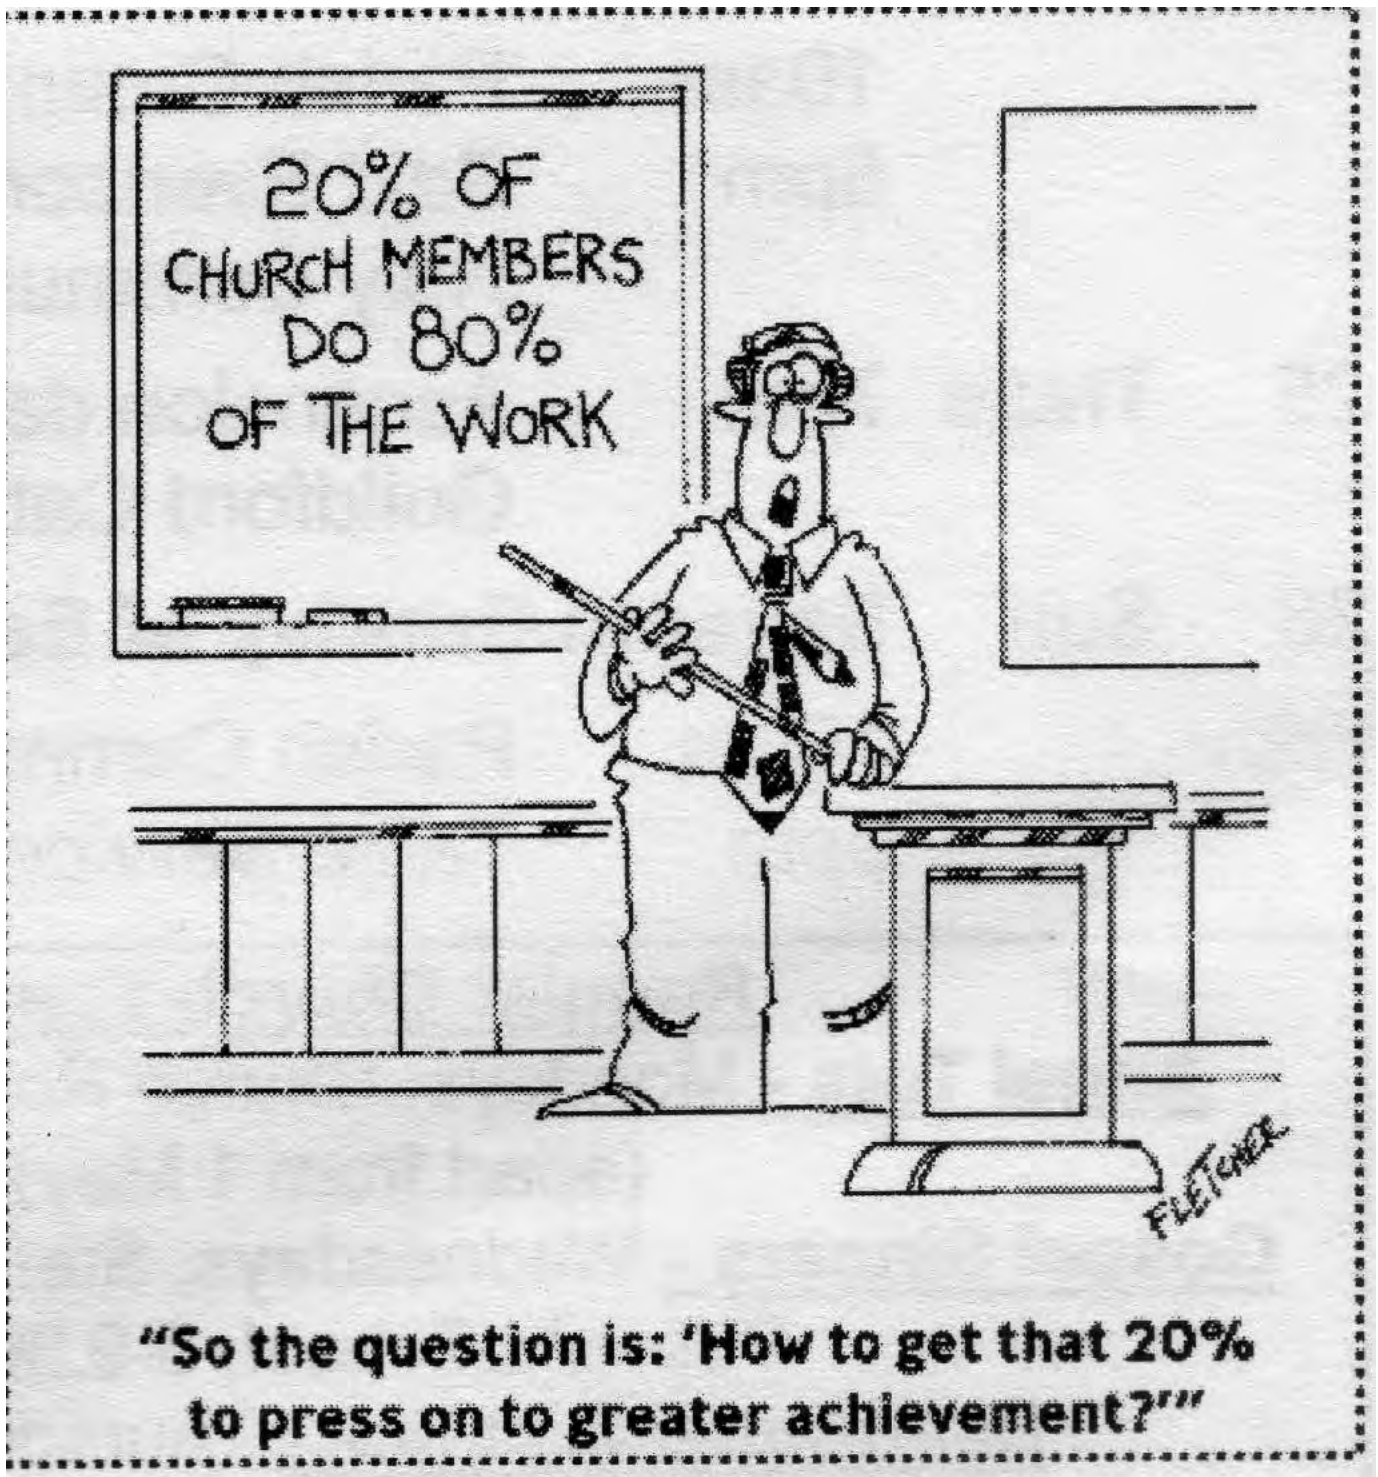

25% off of all regularly priced drinks at Charlie's Las Vegas. Charlie's is offering 25% off, on regularly priced drinks, to all NGRA Members who are wearing their nametag in the bar. This special is 24/7, 365 so be sure to wear your nametag. (Drink specials such as beer bust, happy hour, shot specials, etc. are excluded).

From Your Volunteer Coordinator

You will have seen the comment in the President's contribution about the Pride Parade this year. Your Board is considering whether or not to enter the parade this year. In the last couple of years we have had great floats thanks to the hard work of Matt Todd and a team of volunteers. Producing a great float does depend on volunteers but also money (donations). Once again Matt has offered to lead the group, putting together the float. If you feel it is important for NGRA to have a presence in the Parade and to advertise NGRA this way please get in touch to offer your support.

Fundraising

Hello NGRA Members! Chris Sanders here, not only Miss NGRA 2017 this year but now I am Fundraising Director as well! There are a lot of great ideas being talked about at our meetings and I hope you guys can make it to one. All the help we can get the better! Fundraising meetings are the first Thursday of the Month at 7 pm at the Orleans' Food Court. We will be planning a car wash in the next few meetings so come out and let's talk about new ways to raise funds for NGRA and BigHorn Rodeo.

This past month we had 2 fundraisers. Our monthly event at Flex was on May 13th and it was One Hit Wonders. Thank you to Traci, Charli, Phil, David, Vivianne, Jeffrey and Chris for stepping up and holding the fundraiser while the Royalty was in Palm Springs. It was a small show that raised $175 for NGRA. From what I hear, even though it was a small show, it was a lot of fun.

On May 27th, we held the Annual Closet Ball competition at Charlie's.

We raised $851 for NGRA. Total for May fundraising is $1,026 for NGRA. Please come to a meeting or email me to help with our fundraising efforts.

Next Fundraiser: June 10th – A Night on Broadway at Flex Cocktail Lounge – Cocktail Hour at 8 pm and show at 9 pm.

Patty's Ponderings

Hey all! I am so sorry that I missed last month's Patty's Ponderings. April was such a busy month personally for me that I just did not have the time to do so. So, with this issue, I will back track a little bit.

April Showers

Well we had our monthly fundraiser at Flex cocktail lounge called April Showers. It was RJ's last fundraiser before he left back to Florida for work. So, it was a little sad but we ultimately had fun. Shout Out to Kimberli Foxx who graced the stage with two performances for us. It is always a pleasure to have her come out. As you can see from the pictures we had a great time. Ky, the fabulous bartender of Flex, also auctioned off his underwear. I am still in shock over that! Love me some Ky. LOL. Thanks also to Phil Lombardi and Chad (aka C-Bear) for stepping in last minute to sell Jello shots that the bar provided for us. Taylor Trash, Vivianne DuMonde and Christina Wayves performed and entertained the crowd with ease. It was a fun time.

Pride Coronation

Jason and myself also went to the Pride Coronation at Charlie's later in April and had a nice evening and even chatted with the new royalty. Some things may be coming out soon for collaboration wise.

King and Queen of Diamonds

I also had the honor of being a judge for the Court's King and Queen of Diamonds competition where fellow NGRA member Christina Wayves walked out with the title of Queen of Diamonds. Congrats girl!

One Hit Wonders

First and foremost, thank you to Charli, Traci, Phil, and Jeffrey for holding down the fort and putting on the NGRA fundraiser on the 2nd Saturday while most of us were in Palm Springs for Rodeo. People think that the royalty always have to host every show but it is a team effort from the royalty to board members to all of the wonderful volunteers and members of NGRA that make all of these fundraisers happen. Thank you to those who performed and who came out to have a good time.

Hot Rodeo

Palm Springs was a crazy fun five days for us. Jason and I went down on Thursday and met up with Tre Brewbaker from New Mexico and Chris Tobin from Colorado for the Palm Springs Rodeo Meet and Greet. We got to meet Lola and Jim the Miss and Mr. GSGRA Palm Springs. Things got crazy with cameras flashing and shots flowing. It was a fun night and a great time to sit and talk with these wonderful people and get ideas for the future. Friday was the pool party and contestant registration. During registration, I was approached by the Arena Crew Coordinator, Meghan, about being the GOAT WEIGHT for the weekend. Now, I know there is some kind of joke about Phat Patty being a goat weight, but I will leave that for your imagination. Saturday, we got up bright and early and made it to the rodeo grounds by 830 for our timing meeting. NGRA was well represented as volunteers. We have for Timers: Myself, Jason, Brian, Chad and Christina. Announcers: Doug and Bill aka Katrina. We also had some NGRA contestants competing for the weekend. It was fabulous. Not only did I time, was the goat weight but Doug asked if I could help in the announcer's booth and let me tell you, I learned so much. If you are wanting to volunteer and want to learn more, be a timer (you get a different perspective) work with the announcers (they know so much) work in the arena you learn the rules! Jason and I ended the weekend but signing up with Meghan to work in the Arena in Colorado for their 35th Anniversary rodeo!
