

VOLUME II NO. 7

FEBRUARY 1987

WE WARMED IT UP IN ARIZONA

Approximately twenty-five members of OGRA attended the Arizona Rodeo and although the weather was cooler than usual, the crowd was warm and friendly. Oklahoma again kept up its tradition of enthusiasm. We wish to thank all the Zonies for their hospitality and look forward to welcoming them to Oklahoma. Now on to California!!!

WE WISH TO EXTEND OUR CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL THE CONTESTANTS, WHO ENTERED THE ARIZONA RODEO !

NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT:

I want to apologize for not putting anything in the last few newsletters, but with everything that is coming up in the near future with O.G.R.A., it is time for me to get off my rear end and go to work, so to speak.

First, I want to congratulate those contestants that entered and did so very well in the Texas and Arizona Rodeos. O.G.R.A. has started to make the rest of the associations sit up and take notice of all the good contestants in our organization. A "BIG MURRAH" for all of you. I want to also WELCOME all our new members including those from SOUTHERN OKLAHOMA?!

If you are not aware, our spring extravaganza will be held on April 4th, and at this time, it is scheduled to be held at DALED FARMS. It takes a lot of work to put one of these affairs on, as a lot of you know, and we are looking for HELP. We want to make this extravaganza the best one ever, and make a LOT of money as the Ole Bank Account is getting rather small. This is the largest fund raiser we put on to raise the monies needed for the GREAT PLAINS REGIONAL RODEO which is in August. Sounds like a long time off, but really just around the corner.

GSGRA is gearing up for its thrid annual rodeo which is scheduled for March 27-29. As in the past, the Rodeo will take place at the Los Angeles Equestrian Center in Criffith Park. The Equidome which houses the area itself is covered and offers a good view of the action from every seat. Also presented with the Rodeo will be an Arts and Crafts Festival, a country and Western Music and Dance Festival and entertainment featuring a Casino and some of the finest amateur and professional talent this country has to offer. Over ten thousand attended the 1986 Rodeo and more are expected this year. Ticket prices range from $10 per day general admission to $20 for Box seats. If you wish to reserve a booth space, which is $150 for the weekend, contact Terry Nelson (213) 217-9936. Tickets can be ordered by calling the Rodeo Hot Line (213) 498-1675. Most Airlines are offer ing reduced prices starting at $158 round trip. Also rooms are available at the Holiday Inn in Burbank( 5 miles from the arena).contact one of the OGRA Board members for details. Were hoping to have enough people attend this Rodeo to have our stick-horses in the Grand Entry..
